Thread: Recruiting team to create my next usb stealer!

Chumlee - August 8, 2016, 9:16 pm

Hey HF,

I have had much success with my last version of my usb stealer created completely in batch code. It used to be FUD until it became popular. This worked for windows 7 and 8.

I now need the communities help and collaboration for:

- making it work for windows 10
- adding more steals
- needs to be FUD

PM me and i will add you to the skype group where we can all work on it, everybody will be credited.

Huge plus if you send me previous projects or experiences

Something like a Rubber Ducky would actually be pretty cool instead of having to manually execute the payload.

kmz22222 - August 23, 2016, 10:41 pm

I would love to help, pm me ur skype.

If u didn't recruit me then i think i also have to make a 2016 version of my usb stealer shiz :3

This seems like a great task at hand. I wish you well. How do i Download the other one I seem to be having trouble? And this whole not pming until 25 posts thing is just plain ridiculous.

I would like to be a part of this.

My skype is: brandon.harrell110

Ok just making sure.

Nitr0Sage - December 9, 2016, 10:07 am

Just one more post and I can PM you.

Nitr0Sage - December 16, 2016, 8:45 am

Can I join the team? I have a windows 10 to test it on and I am good with Batch and other languages
