Thread: Rusty is abusing or isn't he? g0tm1k?! - July 12, 2010, 10:57 am

Ok i was selling a itunes card [Mine, not stolen] Rusty deleted it and gave me 20% warning, there is no rule stated saying you cannot sell itunes card.

I think this is very unfair, i asked him to link me to the rule and he responded saying pm omni if not happy. He put it under as black hat WTF

So if there is no rule stated, what happens?

I am fool - July 12, 2010, 11:03 am

Rusty needs to learn the rules before trying to enforce them.

That's what i said, he is abusing imo. My bet he will close this -.-

FUCK YOUR COUCH - July 12, 2010, 11:04 am

He said I was trying to bypass the minimum character filter, when I never repeated any of the words I used.

I got 20% for two posts based on that, all within 10 minutes.

I found it very unnecessary for that to be done.

Don't worry, Rusty is a abuser. He likes power, and abuses it.

Minus-Zero - July 12, 2010, 11:05 am

Lol rust is cool, nyx is cool.

I guess I just like all abusers.

You don't get repfucked for things like that.

Swat Runs Train - July 12, 2010, 11:07 am

It may not be stated but I do believe most gift card sales are not allowed as they are easy to card.

I have seen no rule of this, and especially with itunes.

RUS7Y - July 12, 2010, 11:08 am

Most of them are carded, so "NOT ALLOWED".

gahccbb - July 12, 2010, 11:09 am

Definately abusing.

He was a good, accurate reporter but not so good at moderating.

Something needs to be done about this.

Prone - July 12, 2010, 11:09 am

Rolling on this train, I agree.

k1x - July 12, 2010, 11:09 am

Oyx - July 12, 2010, 11:10 am

Da Loser - July 12, 2010, 11:11 am

Warns way to many people, i didn't think warning someone gave him sexual pleasure.

You're jsut a lot of new fags who dont know the rules.

Good job rusty.

Skill - July 12, 2010, 11:11 am

Rusty_v™ did the right thing. Giftcards, or anything of that nature, are not allowed here at Hack Forums. Omniscient hasn't made this an official rule as of yet, but it was stated in THIS thread a few months back.

Vorfin - July 12, 2010, 11:11 am

No gift cards. End of.

iBruteforce - July 12, 2010, 2:38 pm

Rusty is right, you are wrong.

WRONG. It's been official and is in that thread you pointed to.

Quote:4. No VCC (virtual credit card), VBA's (virtual bank accounts) or gift card discussions allowed.

The Itunes card is a gift card.

Fuck all of you that dogged out Rusty just to be twats.
