I've watched the anime series (both seasons) and really liked it, earlier today I stumbled upon the movie (human acted) but didn't know if I should watch it or not.

Anyone watched it? is it worth it? or it'll just make me hate the anime after I liked it??

I mean if it is something that interest you then watch it.

Who cares what we care about it.

I've been reading a bit of the manga and I guess it's alright.

It's kind of cool but nothing that really hooked me.

Who cares what we care about it.It's just that I like the anime, but if the movie sucked it'll ruin the whole thing, that's why I asked if anyone can tell if it's good or not.

I didn't know about it either, was looking for a script to download a series from kissanime, which somehow lead me to open kissasian, and when I was looking around to see what's there... found it <.<

I can say the same like it's funny but it doesn't feel like there's a sense of urgency that makes you wanna keep going.
