Well, ill join if possible then. PM me the Discord

Lrrr - August 15, 2016, 9:45 am

So let me get this straight, if we can "prove" someone scammed us, this group will attempt to seek out the offending party?

It's a good idea in theory, but who says the proof is valid/invalid before a group goes and ruins some kids life over possibly false pretenses.

Interested, but I want to know how the vetting processes for "proof" happens.

TheChi?f - August 15, 2016, 12:03 pm

Pardon me but isn't this like threatening HF members?

In what way is this threatening HF members? We are aiding as a service to gather information so the person who is scammed can take action.

I hope this good intention isn't being put towards malicious causes. Good luck.

ThisIsCyn - August 16, 2016, 2:55 pm

hit me up with the discord. Similar concept to the black hand hopefully more organised without a few shitty leaders

Only certain people are being put into the group to avoid those who abuse it.

Lrrr - August 16, 2016, 3:14 pm

You never answered my question...

Biometric - August 16, 2016, 3:31 pm

I'm pretty good at doxing and have a decent amount of free time at the moment. I'd also be interested in networking with some other members on this site so I would love to join. The only thing I don't deal with/have experience with doxing-wise is the social engineering aspect like calling isp's.

Zebra_ - August 17, 2016, 5:39 am
