No proper lighting for this one lol. Twas hard to get it right so I just did the basic shadows. Just really wanted to bring a concept to life. Supposed to be more into this but fsdapfks;dlf, lost interest. ffs

Cnc. Thanks.

This is great, has so much more potential. Follow through with some more dynamic lighting on the paint and facial features. I personally would like to see it!

I love the concept. The lighting and shadows could be a little better. Also I honk it would be cool to see one of the paint drips off the face and in mid fall

This is seriously dope dude 10/10, inspired me to begin digital illustration as well as regular isometric graphic design in Photoshop and Illustrator.

Sure is a special facial.

_Banana - August 27, 2016, 4:50 pm

It looks good, but I feel like something else could be added.
