Just a little preface, but if you've never seen this show, you should definitely check it out:

http://myanimelist.net/anime/10721/Mawaru_Penguindrum

Character is Masako Natsume.

Pose comes from a panned shot from the show's second opening I stitched together and used as a guide. Lines vectored by hand in Illustrator w/ Wacom Intuos Pro, imported and painted/shaded in Photoshop. FYI, image quality looks pretty crap when I uploaded it to imgur. If anyone knows a much better image hosting service let me know

Ended up making it because I had no internet 'till this morning, let me know what you guys think.
