##If I buy, I don't want delays.

##All I need is an internet connection and a PC, right? Basically, no other investments.

##Lastly, do I get a refund if am not satisfied?

##Also send me satisfying proofs(video, screenshot with your smartphone, GIF of refresh), not just a jpg, those are easily manipulated.

I could understand your review if you actually bought the guide but right now your post is just pure assumption. Feel free to purchase yourself and give a honest review. For now your comment is meaningless since you've never purchased my ebook. I'd say it's pretty unfair that you comment my ebook is "Trash" when you've never even purchased.

On the fence, you know everyone has a method and it would agree or not agree with the users execution.

I'm not even sure how to ask, I haven't read everything but it seems as though you have a evergreen method going on here.

My only concern is, yes i know I will have to purchase something extra online and have an internet connection. I've got a mac, is it windows specific?

I want to buy into it and follow it to the T, if i don't make anything within this journey (specified days to 1st earnings)... I want to document it... If I didn't follow the you obviously offer that mentoring support.

Just want to know if I really will be able to make some change out of this atleast.... money back within a month.

Doesn't make a difference if you have mac or windows. I do offer support if need be but everything is step by step so i do not think you will need support but i can provide if you have any questions/etc. The methods do require a tiny bit of work but you can earn a lot if you're willing to put in a tiny bit of work. You can make a lot in 1 month easily over what you paid for. There are also bonus money making methods that are provided.

Send me some more info on the guide please - how reliable is your refund guarantee, how many hours per day does it require and how much average earnings can a newbie expect? How often are there updates?

Also, PM me your Skype so I can add you!

Refund is available if you try all the methods an don't earn. Only around 30 minutes of work per day. Check the beginning of the thread to see customer earnings. I will update the methods and send them out to previous customers if need be.
