Apex is a fantastic group to be in. Dont hesitate to apply! Best of luck to you all.

Stixio - August 17, 2016, 12:15 pm

Name: RainObey

Age: 18

Location of Residence: Norway

What are your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Love working with marketing, and Rats, pretty bad when it comes to coding, and those stuff.

How you can contribute to the group: I will make people enjoy the stay, will help out, and learn things of each other.

Links to contributions: I do not have any.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I'd say i deserve it, cus i can help people, as best as i can + I'll make sure they'll enjoy the stay.

W?lf - August 17, 2016, 12:27 pm

Name: David is my name :3

Age:21

Location of Residence: Rather not say :p though I'm in the east coast (:

What are your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Hmm good question, well let's start of with weaknesses. I procrastinate a lot sadly when it comes to work or stuff that i have to do in general that's probably my biggest and only weakness.

Strengths, I'm a fast learner. Anything i set my mind to do i end up doing it. I go to college and study business, so business is another strong suit of mines. I don't know if this is a strength but i am very social and outgoing and not afraid to talk to anyone about anything.

How you can contribute to the group: I can contribute by being an active member of the group. Keeping a good name to the Apex brand. I can also contribute in any different way that you guys need me to.

Links to contributions: Don't have any yet but later on i hope to contribute when i settle in as i'm still pretty new :)

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I feel like i deserve to be in Apex because like you said you want active members and I myself am super active on HF, I love HF and everything it has to offer so i will not be going anywhere and will continue to be active. Also hope to contribute to guys in whatever way possible. I hope to be able to prove myself, as i don't feel like i explained myself very well.

I feel like this is a meh application sadly my brain is just not with me right now. In any case thanks a lot for the opportunity to join your group!

best regards,

The One and Only Wolf

Demonstrate - August 17, 2016, 12:29 pm

Name: Demonstrate

Age: 18

Location of Residence: I currently reside in Hollywood, California.

What are your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths are my knowledge in computers/computer components, my experience in marketing, my writing skills and my grammar. My weaknesses include, but aren't limited to my vocabulary, my tenancy to be apathetic when concern would be the reaction from anyone else and the fact that I'm not in Apex.

How you can contribute to the group: I can contribute to the group by proving computer assistance/troubleshooting for members of Apex, indulging in thoughtful discussions, aiding members in marketing strategies, proofreading the work from Apex members and hopefully some teammates for those who game on PC.

Links to contributions:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5376964>

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I deserve to be in Apex due to the atmosphere that Apex resolves around. The description provided gives an implication that there are many like-minded individuals in the group and that is truly what it means to be a group, but possibly allowing members with differentiating thoughts will bring better discussions. I'm looking to discuss/give my opinion of what's currently going on in the world and give back to the forums in whatever way I can. Thank you for your time.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I was in the group before and really enjoyed it think im still in the skype group lol. Im always willing to start new projects with anyone that asks me no one really came to me with anything last time i was in the group but im always up for it. I think i could help spread the group into the marketplace and help out with Apex products if you guys got some eventually.

53CUR1TY - August 17, 2016, 3:55 pm

Name:

Cody

Age:

20

Location of Residence:

Deep in the heart of Texas

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

My strengths come in many varieties as do my weaknesses, however I do believe they work together to make up my character.

A busy schedule is something that has been apart of my life since about high school. I currently attend college, work a full time job, and am apart of extracurricular activities. Things have been like this for years and only through failure have I learned how to overcome the adversity that is my lack to time. This primary weakness has grown into a strength in that I've been forced to use every minute of my day wisely and productively. Organization and the will to follow through with what I've started also go hand in hand with my cramped days. Not only have I been able to maintain this life style, but have also found time for other things I enjoy, such as the most of the community on hack forums.

How you can contribute to the group:

A little bit about my technical background. I work as a cyber security lab manager at a large enterprise (if you wish to know where we can discuss that separately, I'd like to keep that as disclosed as possible). I have extensive experience in network/server security as well as penetration testing. I do however, believe that I can bring more to this group than just my technical knowledge.

I joined hack forums at a young age due to the appeal of being a hacker, it interest me; I stayed because I have never had my ideas and beliefs challenged in such ways that made me grow intellectually, not just through technical discussions, but world view, religious debates, and the topics of morality. All of these things have aided in molding me who I am today, not only as a professional in the work force, but as an adult apart of society.

To summarize, I can bring forth the expansion of new ideas and the challenging of existing ones for the constructive good of the group.

Links to contributions:

SRPP discussion (some might not view this as contributions, but the conversation of ideas and worldview will always be a contribution one way or another):

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I do not believe anyone inherently deserves anything, but rather must earn what is wanted. Whether I deserve it or not is up to you, however I believe I could possibly have earned a spot in this group due to my honesty about myself, as well as my dedication to expand and grow the ideas of Apex.

Thank you very much for both your time and consideration.

The Plague Doctor - August 17, 2016, 5:17 pm

Name: Zeb

Age: 18+

Location of Residence: UK.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths are definitely being good at communicating with others and a lot of computer skills which I don't particularly want to post on this thread publicly. Also been getting into a lot of marketing the past 2 months.

How you can contribute to the group: I'll be extremely active as I have been in past groups, also willing to do whatever I can to help in any situation.

Links to contributions:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3360575>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4868687>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3348181>

A lot more, can go through threads etc to find if needed.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: Because I'm an incredibly active user who has been looking for a new group to be a part of for a while, I will give my all to contribute in every possible way and will help anybody who needs it in most circumstances.

Ash Ketchum - August 17, 2016, 9:19 pm

Name:Liam

Age: 19

Location of Residence:Australia

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Strengths, Marketing, general knowledge, Rats, Stressers,E whoring, SE. Weaknesses: Coding

How you can contribute to the group: Activity, contribution to future projects, helping spread information to other members, and hopefully Just being a good person to you all socially.

Links to contributions: All of my contributions have been directly to users, rather than threads so i don't really have much to put here, but willing to change that if required.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:I love to help expand other peoples knowledge, be social and also keep things active, i think i'll be a good edition to apex for those reasons, and i hope you see the same

Thanks for taking your time, to read my application.

Wyatt Garcia - August 18, 2016, 8:20 am

Name: Aecy

Age: 19

Location of Residence: Finland/Sweden

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Marketing, videogames and speaking different languages is my biggest strengths. I can talk about 4 languages. And my weakness is math and programming.

How you can contribute to the group: I will be very active member, help other people and post/make threads in the subforum.

Links to contributions:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5082793>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5293108>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5099331>

Also 2 more threads of me giving free money making eBooks away, but I junked them.

Usually helping people out in the rewards section too, and if anyone asks for help I'm most likely helping them if I can ?

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I am active. I would post on your subforum and actually talk with other users. I'm really friendly and I can help other people with marketing/other stuff.

I've sold many services and products, I have the knowledge. My application is not that fancy, I think there is no need for it.

I would be helpful person for your group, and honest one. I can be friend with anyone and chat almost about anything. Would like to meet some new people.

Janus0 - August 18, 2016, 3:54 pm

Name: Janus

Age: 16

Location of Residence: I prefer not to share this information :3, but I'm french and trilingual

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Very hard to tell, I'd say that my biggest strength is my ability of understanding anything within a short period of time and/or my ability to adapt to any situation. My biggest weakness is, to be honest, the fact that I am often too sure of myself

How you can contribute to the group: I have quite some experience in forex trading as well as gaming xD, and more recently I'm interested in ethical hacking and pen-testing.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I'm not pretending to be the perfect guy for this group nor am I pretending to deserve a place in it. But I guess I can still answer this question : I'm a very active user, I'm aware that I'm fairly new but I'll make sure to be as helpful as possible to everyone :D.

Thank you for taking the time to read this post.

zeroday - August 18, 2016, 5:02 pm

Name: Web Dev

Age: 17

Location of Residence: United Kingdom

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strength is getting shit done fast and to a high standard (college assignments) and development. My biggest weakness is being too paranoid sometimes and keeping too many secrets.

How you can contribute to the group: I can contribute to the group by supporting members that need help, being active in the sub forum (and any other things, like Discord etc), and by publicly supporting the group.

Links to contributions: I've junked a lot of my threads from the past but right now I'm offering a giveaway that you can find here.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I deserve to be in Apex because I'm a member that will actively take part in Apex's endeavors, I'm a member that will help the Apex members when they need help, and because I'm a member that will actively take part in the Apex group and make more Apex friends (I already have a couple of friends in Apex).

TheChi?f - August 19, 2016, 12:19 pm

This group sure has great potential with the right push. Good luck to all the applicants :)

Confound - August 19, 2016, 8:26 pm

I am still interested to see some people really put some time and effort into their applications. I look forward to reading them.

~ Left HF For Good ~ - August 19, 2016, 10:32 pm

Name: Ominous

Age: 16, 17 soon.

Sooty - August 20, 2016, 1:10 am

NAME: Bribe

Age:17

Location of residence: United States

Strengths and weaknesses: My strengths include marketing, entrepenureship, also I'm an avid learner plus active listener. I'm a great problem solver, and could be good in difficult situations. Some of my weakness are very little to none but typically around coding.

How can I contribute to this group?: Being honest I doubt I could contribute to this group because you probably already have members that can easily do what I do but I could bring kindness and giveaways in the name of apex. I'm actually great at marketing and group work. If there is a situation I can normally help in any case.

Links: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5374950>

Why do you deserve to join apex?: I feel that I deserve to be in apex because I have a great personality and would love to meet and communicate with new members. I'm a great problem solver and a huge team leader in any problems. I would love to do giveaways in the name of apex and get the name around. I also would like to market in the name of apex. I love spreading joy through lounges and I could be very active in any case! Thanks for considering my application, have a nice day!

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strength is being able to know when to act seriously and when it's appropriate to goof off. It's bad to mix those two and I am excellent at keeping things silly when needed and professional when also needed. My biggest weakness would be that I don't know when to sleep.

How you can contribute to the group: I know my way around doxing, pentesting, ewhoring, coding and lots of bh shit.

So surprised there isn't more apps, this group seems awesome O_O am I missing something?

Confound - August 20, 2016, 7:48 am

We have already had 2 recruitment threads since the group's inception. One had 199 replies, and the other had 215. We are targeting this recruitment to members that either didn't get a chance to apply in the first two rounds or users who want a second chance.

I expect more applications to trickle in, as members realize they have another chance to be a part of Apex.

Gorilla - August 20, 2016, 3:31 pm

Name: Josh/Gorilla

Age: 21 Years old.

Location of Residence: East Coast/USA

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths are being productive, active, head strong, and willing to accept failure as a learning process; my biggest weaknesses are funding and coding.

How you can contribute to the group: I can contribute to the group in many ways, such as I did for the Specialists. I will start multiple group projects, sell group projects/items, and help other members throughout the sub-forum and forum itself. I enjoy helping out and I'm online about 10 hours per day. I'm willing to contribute wherever I'm needed within the group.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I feel like I deserve to be in Apex because I'm a helpful, hard working member of this forum. A lot of people mistake me as a hard egg to crack but I'm actually willing to help you out to the best of my ability. I enjoy creating projects, working with others and making this a fun environment for others. If you accept me, you'll see for yourself.

Hamekaze - August 20, 2016, 9:10 pm

No luck until 3 months from now, looks promising though.

Don Genovese - August 22, 2016, 12:42 am

Name: Raymond ;)

Age: < 18

Location of Residence: United Kingdom

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths lie in the coding, hacking, marketing and the general technology area. I have been coding for a long time, and am very familiar with the .Net Framework, but am now moving over to the more native languages. I have developed and marketed quite a few products, and they all were very successfull. I sold ownership of these products though, as I am working for someone else now (scoprpi0n) in two major projects. My weaknesses lie on the graphical side of things, I have limited experience with Photoshop, and other graphic and designing software, although I do plan to improve my skill set with them.

How you can contribute to the group: I can contribute to this group in many ways. I have a lot of time, I am on Hackforums most of the day, and would love to help new people learn new things, and exchange knowledge and experience with other users. I also believe that I could help in future group projects (software, and other tech related stuff) a lot.

Links to contributions: I was the developer and owner of the first two links, and a partial developer and full owner of the last link.

Link 1

Link 2

Link 3

These links are not my only contributions, I am also helping other members around the site whenever I can do so, whether that be in the Lounge, Coding, Hacking, Marketing or Technology section.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I have been on this forum a while now, and have seen this group around the site very often, and I have nothing but good things to say about it. I deserve to be in the group as I will be very active and immersive with the group. I will get involved in whatever the group might be doing, and I will help every other member in the group as much as I possibly can whenever I can. I also meet all of the requirements, and have never had a deal dispute or scam report against me.

Thank you very much, Raymond.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Strength: Hardwork, Will Power and Dedication is my ONLY strength. I don't believe in failures, either I win or Learn but I never fail. Maybe I'm stubborn towards perfection/success. I'll keep on trying until unless I reach the triumph !!

Weakness: My biggest weakness is that I count on people easily. I feel that, If I'm completely honest with someone then they also carry the same traits.

But Now I've understood that one should "Go with the flow". So, now I act according to the need of the hour and I present myself as per the situation(s).

How you can contribute to the group: Sharing my experience, support and any kind of help in the field of Internet Marketing, Security Researching, Startups, Entrepreneurship etc (Sky is the limit).

[??\[HOT\] Get any template from DREAM TEMPLATE \[HOT\]\[VOUCHED\]??](#)

Why you deserve to be in Apex: Because I feel like, I should meet new people who carry the same mindset which I follow/have. Secondly, for me its not about getting in a group but learning something (I really mean it). If I'm lucky enough to be a part of this HQ Group then I'll be highly obliged.

Secondly, I can offer my loyalty, will and 100% Dedication to this group. Because, a business cannot grow unless its members are truly loyal to each other and without dedication, you cannot pull potential out of it.

I'm passionate about learning. Either from my own mistakes or from others, but its always good to learn from others mistakes because we don't have that much of time to make our own.

The urge of learning something new motivates me to work on something, irrespective of its potential. Therefore, today I'm running my own Internet Marketing Agency (<https://www.internetmarketinggurus.net>) and a News/Media Website (<http://www.virtuefy.com>)

Name:

Alan

Age:

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

In terms of workspace (based on tests)

- Leadership figure
- Rational
- Creative thinker
- Constrained by self

- Sometimes judgemental
- In terms of interests and knowledge
- Computer sciences
- Sciences (various kinds), philosophy
- (General) discussions

How you can contribute to the group:

I have a post count of 2,000 in the Science, Religion, Philosophy and Politics forum which form my past contributions in terms of uplifting the quality of many discussions held in that forum, it earned me membership to the group Void (no longer exists). Sciences and open-minded philosophies have intrigued me for a large part of my life and still remain an every-day interest. Apart from that I have amateur-level knowledge and skills in most of the computer science domains as I've had C#, networking, hardware, web design courses and have explored photo and video editing, skiddy hacking, as well as cryptography in different forms. I consider myself knowledgeable in the field of data forensics and computer maintenance (hardware and software).

What is less related to HF itself is my knowledge regarding the topics ecology, environment and energy. I am soon starting my 3rd year in college and my studies cover a holistic view of ecology; there's energy (green, biomass, production, management), electricity, (home)automation, ecodesign, environmental sciences (water, soil, air pollution and purification), HVAC, sustainable living, waste management and a few others not worth mentioning. I own a Raspberry and am planning on playing around with small-scale home automation so that's another upcoming field that will one day be a part of my contributions.

I would honestly like to add that I came back to HF a few weeks ago after taking a break since 2013. I am quite up-to-date with the current atmosphere here and this means that most of my activity and contributions were made in between 2012 and 2013. As I am now back I can guarantee quality activity that at least equals the one I've had in the past.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I have a broad range of amateur-to-intermediate skillset and knowledge in IT-related and scientific topics, Apex members possess a plethora of information and knowledge in their fields of expertise, so I feel there's a match. I am not going to write a long answer here as well as I feel that the above answers somewhat express why I find myself worthy of being a member in Apex.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

My strengths include dedication, my work ethic, I easily learn new things, work well with others, and am a strong writer. My weaknesses include patience with people and trusting other users.

How you can contribute to the group:

My experiences include: graphic design, web development, and business management. My knowledge in these areas can be beneficial to other group members, as I love helping people with new things. I always have projects that are currently running or are in development which I can launch under the group name, which will help get the group's name out there as HQ.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

I'm proficient in a wide variety of graphic design elements such as modelling, branding, and illustration; however, I do lack experience in programming.

How you can contribute to the group:

I believe that I can share my knowledge of the skills I am proficient in and learn from others where I am not.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I believe that through the contributions that I can make, I will serve as a valuable asset to Apex.

Reven?nt - August 25, 2016, 5:40 pm

Name: Revenant

Age: 20

Location of Residence: USA

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: I believe one of my strengths is that I pick up on things very quickly and love to put a lot of time and effort into something to become great at it. However, one of my weaknesses is that I can't manage learning multiple things at once. For example, if I learn a new programming language I have to focus all my time on the one language.

How you can contribute to the group: I love to learn new things and share them with others. Also, I would love to work with other group members and learn with one another.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I believe I would be an asset to have in the group. like I stated prior, I am constantly learning new things and am more than happy to share my knowledge with others.

Name:

Brad

Age:

19

Location of Residence:

Australia

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

I believe my biggest strengths would be my determination and execution. Once I set my focus on something I achieve it. I am very determined when I set my mind to something and always focus enough to establish and execute what I deem achieved. I work well individually and in groups and always get along with anybody. My weaknesses would contain the fact that I seem to trust people too easily.

How you can contribute to the group:

I can contribute in many ways. I could work within groups sharing my past marketing experience/general knowledge around that area. I am always willing to help people within and outside the group which I believe would set a brighter image on the group. I can host events and partner up with some members to pump out some quality material. I am always willing to give new things a go and believe I would be a good decision for the group. I will be exceptionally active within the subforum and will keep a bright image upon the group.

Name: Jacob

Age: 16

Location of Residence: California, USA

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths are dealing with people, weather it's chatting someone up or trying to sell them something they don't want to buy, I've always had an ability to find out what a person wants me to say. I'm also very well rounded in the computer world. I currently am going to university in the field of software engineering. As far as weaknesses go I'm very forgetful, a side effect of having ADHD. But despite that I have taken steps in my life to overcome this disability.

How you can contribute to the group: I can do anything I set my mind to, though there may be some things I'm better at as opposed than others, I will always put in maximum effort into anything I do.

Links to contributions: I like to think I have made many "contributions" to a lot of things. What I am most proud of though was working with an amazing group of people in the development in a subscription based website for D&D players called City of Brass
(<https://www.cityofbrass.io>)

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I don't think I deserve to join Apex, from what I have heard it is an amazing group of people known to partake in a bunch of great things. If I am lucky enough to become part of a group such as this, I would make sure to devote as much as I can to the group. Weather that means mentoring members in coding based subjects, participating in group projects, or just hanging out with the group. I think I could make a positive impact in Apex. ?

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Graphic design as well as marketing and writing. I've been designing my own graphics for a while now, this to improve my performance on making designs. I have a free design service opened here, this is to prevent users overpaying for a design. This benefits both sides, the customer and me. I like to sell things as well. However, this doesn't include 'money making' ebooks as I find them useless, 'most' of them are not working. I like to sell things that do help the to improve instead. Such as how to correctly market your thread or how to DOX someone. My weak-points are crypto-currency, I am

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths are in gaming, social engineering, video and picture editing, some coding languages like Python, Java and HTML.

My weakness are women, i easily fall in love with someone.

How you can contribute to the group: I can generally help group members, host giveaways for steam game codes (i have tons of them) and just really talking and helping in general with everyday questions. And ofcourse i will be very active.

Links to contributions: e-whoring guide, CSGO edit for a member, PokemonGO account giveaway, Free HQ e-book , Also, i have helped other members with financial support here.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I really am expecting this group to be good, i can actually help with daily things, i'm a good guy overall. I like to help.

Hopefully you consider me, thanks for reading my application.

Confound - September 18, 2016, 7:29 pm

Some of you have been contacted for next steps. Do not worry yet for those who have not been contacted. I plan on doing some more outreach in regards to accepting more new members. Keep doing what you do best on HF, and if Egregious, Goat, or myself see and like what you are up to, we will reach out.

Best,

We are also still accepting new applications at this time, so get them in.

kpown - September 19, 2016, 8:34 am

Kpown's Apex Application

Name: Kpown

Age: 19

Location of Residence: USA

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: I would say that my biggest strength would be my willingness and desire to learn new skills and concepts. I have dabbled in many different fields and haven't yet found my true niche though I ran a RAT mentoring service on HF for a few months. (<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5270796>). I have been studying doxing and PI a lot lately as well as basic pentesting. I would consider myself pretty fluent in Linux as I have been using it for over a year actively. My greatest weakness would be my lack of expendable money. I wish I had the money to fund ideas that I come up with. If you look at some of my posts in the embedded electronics section (<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5409488&pid=52493673#pid52493673> or <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5408688&pid=52486673#pid52486673>) and you will see that I have no shortage of unique ideas. Sadly I am a college student and I cannot afford to pursue my ideas. This is why I often share them on HF in hopes that someone will also find interest.

How you can contribute to the group: I can contribute to the group by being involved in group activities/projects as well as contributing creative input and ideas. This is my first and only group application on HF so you can count on me to be active and involved.

Links to contributions: School Hacking Guide, Sentry MBA Key Giveaway, Random Steam Codes Share, How to Get Free Food in College!

Why you deserve to be in Apex: Apex is the only group I have applied to as of yet, so you can count on me to be an active member as I've stated before. I have wanted to join a group on HF for a while now and I think I am finally ready to do so. A lot of my posts on HF are directed to helping new members solve whatever issues they are trying to solve because I wanted to give back to the community that taught me basically all that I have learned. I am on HF very regularly as it is the only social media platform that I use. I don't feel as if I "deserve" to be in Apex, I just ask to be considered for acceptance.

Note: I plan on getting ep1c then ub3r very soon.

Thank you for your consideration!

King of Diamonds - September 19, 2016, 11:18 am

Location of Residence: United States

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest weakness is the fact that I have trust issues when dealing with others. I've never been scammed because of this, and so I would consider that a strength.

How you can contribute to the group: I am currently studying to become a Graphic Designer, and I have years of experience discussing with clients, and marketing different products. I am often very active in Skype group chats, and wouldn't mind participating in any group activities. (Mentoring, Learning, etc.) I would also be glad to help spread ideas and such with anyone looking for help planning products to sell on the HackForums marketplace.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I am a HQ user who loves to hang around other people and loves to give back.

VirtualFrost - October 6, 2016, 12:00 am

Name: VirtualFrost

Age: 19

Location of Residence: Australia

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

Strengths: Self-motivated Worker: I've only ever once taken an IT course at school, through that I learnt Delphi (which I never used outside of school). Before that I selftaught myself web development around HTML/CSS and some Javascript knowledge too. As well as that, I've completed courses on Codecademy and continue to keep documents about languages I learn to reference back to.

Web Development - I feel this is one strength of mine, I've made a bit of my own projects, and I coded my own Portfolio website (no longer up, but looking to bring it back soon as I've got new things to show off).

Team Worker - As stated, I work best around teams and enjoy sharing and learning new knowledge off other people and feel more efficient when I do so.

Weaknesses: Guaranteed Online - I say this as a weakness as if there was ever certain times I need to be on, I know sometimes I won't make it as I work as a casual so I vary with time. However, I spend basically 95% of my time at home online so if I'm not there, I'm generally working.

Over-confident - Every now and then I notice I try jump into things without knowing how much harder it can be, this is mostly around coding projects. I see something I think is easy until I begin and realise it's a lot more complex than I thought.

How you can contribute to the group:

I am able to contribute to the group in one of two ways, or even both. I can participate in any future group giveaways or contests that you may hold. I'd be able to contribute towards money or award giveaways to help keep the quality of the group and to give back to the community. Another way I'm able to contribute is through my web knowledge or my upcoming C# knowledge. I am currently learning this language and I hope to release programs, tutorials or assist others around the C# section in the near future.

Everything else after this list is 2014 and 2013 contributions. I created two account shops and made one Mega Thread about Minecraft Factions.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I believe I deserve a spot within Apex because as your information states, you guys excel at working in a team, something I wish to begin doing and participating in group projects and helping and learning along the way with a group of people with a similar mindset. I'd also love to bring in new ideas on projects we could do as a whole together as well.

Sho?kwave - October 6, 2016, 12:47 am

Name: Shockwave (Jacob)

Age: 18+

Location of Residence: Australia

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strengths, I can code fluently in multiple languages, excellent at business management and extremely driven. Weakness, I have trouble trusting mostly everyone.

How you can contribute to the group: As stated above, I'm a programmer, I can do projects in my free time, and have done so for multiple other groups.

Links to contributions: Most of my contributions aren't exactly public, I run product here called Imminent Monitor and have been doing so for years, I mainly contribute in private.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I feel as if I'd be a valuable asset in Apex based on skills listed above, but mostly I enjoy being in a community of like minded individuals.

Career - October 6, 2016, 1:48 am

Name: Will

Age: 20

Location of Residence: United States. PM me if you'd like to know what state.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Social Engineering, snapchat growing, accounting, social networking and marketing. Trusting people, being too nice and gambling.

How you can contribute further to the community through the lense of Apex: By doing a variety of giveaways such as money in BTC, buying awards for members, member upgrades for those who aren't upgraded yet, tutorials on methods that I've found out and to this point only I know and just helping the community in anyway that I can. I'm always online so I can always be on the lookout for anyone who needs help with anything and I'll do my best to help them out.

How you can contribute to the group: Helping members within the group with things I'm skilled at, I'm always online/super active, host giveaways under Apex name if allowed to and always be a helping hand whenever I can.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

Strengths:Workaholic.

Computer Engineer graduate.

Passionate on my field and my hobbies (photography,music).

Self-motivated.

Social. I know how to work with groups.

Weakness:Lazy sometimes. This one, works also as an advantage when I have to do a boring job and I am trying to find a quicker way to do it.

Impatient. Sometimes I am so enthusiastic, so I tend to be impatient for something.

How you can contribute to the group:

I can contribute through my Web Development expertise. Also I have various knowledge on related topics such as Software Development, Marketing, OS's, Programs and Basic Networking. I have been in an NGO. In AEGEE (an NGO I have been 2 years active) I have done a lot of different things, from administration of the member's database to setting up an event from scratch and working with a group of people.

I am also trying to help in Website Construction section here by providing knowledge.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: My biggest strength is actually my biggest weakness. I'm too patient, especially when it comes to business. I act professional and keep the standards high as possible, but due to that behavior, most times I end up being taken advantage of.

How you can contribute to the group: I'm a Web & Graphics designer. I can provide with plenty of tips in terms of designing or building a project from bottom to top. Branding & Images are the face of a project on the internet. I specialize on making those look great!

Links to contributions: I'm not sure what is meant by "contributions", however I've done some giveaways in the past, but mostly providing feedback & help on different matters. Mostly Graphics Related.

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I consider myself being a great team player, especially when it comes to starting off projects on the internet! I can backup such projects graphics-wise, and even help promotion! I'm also looking for new friends :3

Small update - We have recently taken a few new members, and we will continue taking some more throughout the vetting process. That said - we are mostly interested in seeing what and how members can contribute to the community at large, and not just within our group. So I will be readjusting the application, and members still interested in applying should readjust their application as well, while new applicants should take from the newly adjusted format.

What are your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

My strengths are that I have been on my own since I was 16 years old,and I was forced to learn on how to become successful. My biggest weakness is being a brain cancer survivor, memory tends to be an issue but I do my best to cope.

How you can contribute to the group:

I have been working in search engine optimization, Social Engineering, Monetizing Techniques, Drop shipping, and would have no issues sharing knowledge I have learned over the years.

Links to contributions:

All of my contributions have been in Illuminati/The Order.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I joined this forum looking to socialize, make friends, business partners, and connections. Now I cannot sit here and tell you I deserve to be apart of the group more than anyone else. But I am dedicated to HF and respect mostly all of its members. I have made a fair share of money and have spent a fair share as well. What I am trying to say is I try to be active in the community and if I were able to be apart of this group, I would gladly be very active, easy going, and resourceful. I have big plans, and I would like to share my methods. I appreciate the opportunity to join and look forward to a potential invitation.

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

I'd say my biggest strengths would be my focus towards something, whether that be a task or project, and the attention to detail. I am always looking on ways to improve and things to improve, and I am patient too. I'd say my biggest weakness would be my attention span.

How you can contribute further to the community through the lense of Apex:

I can help several members within Apex and throughout HF with my skillset. I can also host tasks, give ideas and contribute to contests as well as write the odd guide for everyone, hopefully giving Apex a good name.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

I like to share my focus towards groups that have projects and tasks for their members. I also love helping people where I can, and when I can. This would normally be involved around Internet and Network Security, as well as networking in general (Studying my degree in it). Although, I do have many other talents as well where I can help in different areas. I love to contribute and talk to new people too, so I think having the chance to join Apex will allow me to meet new people, and discover new talents, and possibly meet people with the same interests as me to further help them, or work together with them to produce ideas for the group itself.

Name: DJ S.(Arixs)

Age: 19

Location of Residence: Arkansas

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses: Well, for my strengths i'd say that I am a good leader, and I never crack under the pressure or stresses of leading a project or others. I am also great keeping track of events and things going on, and keeping it all organized and on schedule. I am decent at managing money, turning about $200 into $1000 in stocks during an investment rise earlier this year, and still haven't lost really an of said money. As for a few of my weaknesses, I am usually very authoritarian, and I don't take kindly to disrespect. I treat everyone fairly, but disrespect me and I won't show mercy.

How you can contribute further to the community through the lense of Apex: I'm good at managing projects, be it an event, or a full-scale project, I keep it on track and done in time. I'm great at maintaining databases if one ever needs to be maintained. Plus(although its not my strongest suit) if you give me a log via JoshuTrees script or any other related program, I can usually find infections that one may have put onto their computer, and instruct how to remove it.

Links to contributions: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5433412> (More of a joke tbh)

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I'm always available to help, whether it be with the group, or it be to another user, I'm able to get on (exceptions during nights, and maybe a few hours during the week)

Thanks for considering me, cheers!

Why you deserve to be in Apex: I don't believe I deserve anything. I've always worked for what I want. That's how I came up, if I ever wanted something I worked for it. I don't believe I'm more deserving than the person above me or below me.

Name: Zach

Age: 16 years, 7 months

Location of Residence: New York, USA

Your biggest strengths/weaknesses:

I am a fun person to be around, I love to joke around and just have fun. I enjoy working on almost anything computer related, and I am interesting in starting a project/company via a website.

How you can contribute further to the community through the lense of Apex:

I could host giveaways or post a tutorial with the apex prefix, and using the apex logo. This would help better the image of the group overall.

Links to contributions:

How to pull an IP from almost anybody on skype with wireshark - A tutorial on how to pull an IP address on skype, pretty self explanatory.

Beginners guide to bitcoin: everything you need to know - A complete tutorial on how bitcoin works, and how a beginner can get started with using it.

Method to buy altcoin awards without having a wallet - A simple tutorial I made on how to buy altcoin awards without a wallet.

[\[EVERYONE\] METHOD TO GET UNLIMITED FREE RDP'S \(WORKING 2016\)](#) - A method I gaveaway to get unlimited free RDP's.

Why you deserve to be in Apex:

The leaders all know me and who I am. I'm a fun person to be around, and I have a lot to bring to the group. Thanks for reading my application.
