This is my post will give me 1,000 posts and is dedicated to telling you all how successful I am.

I'm very successful with the ladies and would definitely consider myself a pickup artist.

Do you know what site you're on? This forum is full of 13 year olds with their dick in their hands.

I know, I'm a 17 year old with a dick in my hand.

edit: read that back and that sounded wrong

Getting girls through mental manipulation and corny methods is, in fact, lame.

i get the gist of what you wanna say. but trust me, knowing what you are doing is priceless. i know a few pick up artists that get more a+ pussy in a month than some men in a lifetime.

well thats one way to see it. in my world its about knowing what social dynamics are working in my favour or against it. its like a knife, you can stab someone or you can cut the meat in order to eat something.

I once picked up a girl in public. She told me to put her down or she would call the cops..

well like i said, its like a knife. the "dynamics" aka not manipulaion just dynamics exist anyway.
