Send me a PM please. Looking for verification service.

Exzib - September 6, 2016, 12:10 am

Currently I do not recommend using his service.

All started out with him not being able to recieve payments, so we had to manually load my account, I then had to send the money ($20) to two different paypals, one payment apparently he "couldn't claim" and the other one dissapeared into the void. He told me to send to a paypal, which led to me sending to another paypal, which I later found out was a reseller panel/service of social media service.

After many hours of talking back and fourth my account got loaded with $20 and I purchased 1k subs, which in the system says would take 24-48 hours.

Now after 4 days I have 180 subs and he have not responded nor been online on skype for 2 days.

Will remove this when solved.

You are not interested to talk to me.

Check skype conversation , you will see i was the last to reply and I never got reply from your side. Also the $10 payment is not reflecting for withdraw as you used some type of shipping service.

I told you before youtube subscribers are not good this time but you just wanted to give a try. Hope you can cooperate and get it solved with me.

Theroyalstags.

I see you have low price does this effect the quality i currently pay $1.5 per 1k

I see you are advertising at $0.8 per 1k.

I will be buying $10/50 worth a day.

I am a re-seller and have my own brand

I have some questions.

- How fast is the deposit when i deposit onto the account

- How fast from me adding a link do i get followers.
- Do followers drop (if so do you replace?)
- How many different links can i at one time

Sorry a lot of questions but i resell and i have a stable panel right now and make the owner a shit ton of cash just looking for a cheaper provided making bigger profit :D
