Stop begging for vouch copies.

Niccolò Machiavelli - August 20, 2016, 8:14 pm

If this involves support (which I believe it does) it isn't a Oday, neither is it worth $1k. I know something exactly like this for Instagram.

Dr.Penguin - August 20, 2016, 8:14 pm

Let me know if you need a review.

No it doesn't, it's way more sneaky, like no joke in the wrong hands it's nasty as fuck

Which is why I would rather OP not sell it.

Just not worth 1k in my opinion, however op got it.

I'm incredibly curious if this isn't the support method. Being a prick myself, I PM'd daniel asking about the support method as that's something my friend used for @Chainsaw and won't tell us.

But going from what you've said, this method sounds pretty dodgy.

You know why they call it "begging" in the rule? Because you're asking for free shit. Check your recent posts mate.

You want a $1k 0day exploit for free. Pathetic, yet I get -3.

He wanted a vouch copy to prove it's legit instead of someone paying 1k and turning out it's not?

That's exactly what a middleman is used for.

Every review these vouch beggars give is biased so other sellers see the reviews and give them free stuff as well.

Hamekaze - August 20, 2016, 8:53 pm

Looks interesting, but if tl;dr doesn't consider it $1000 I don't think anyone would pull that much out of their ass for a SE method (assuming it is one).

Damn you've got an AOL, Verizon AND Twitter 0day exploit for sale, all for $1,000 and $500 BTC..

Mut3x - August 21, 2016, 12:56 am

People on hackforums really make me laugh sometimes. Anyone who believes this retard deserves to lose they're money.

Riyu- - August 21, 2016, 12:01 pm

Any account I've ever had access too? I've had access to a lot of accounts what is necessary? I'm super interested cause I could pull back a lot of twitters
