Thread: TheWallsPlayer did AN oops

Kitler - August 21, 2016, 12:52 pm

Just making this post for my friend from his own words.

Some of you may have seen the thread that TheWallsPlayer posted about his autoclicker. He got banned for 3 days, because posting a link to the Marketplace isn't allowed, apparently. He wanted me to let you guys know that he'll be back in 3 days to handle the requests that he received, as well as anyone else who wanted to order. If you want an autoclicker, you can reply here, and it would make it easier for him to get back to you. Sorry for the inconvenience.

he got banned because i reported his thread for cross posting lost all my shit as soon as i saw his name blacked out and when i viewed his profile and saw "Last seen viewing no permissions page" i was fuckin dead son loooooooooool also you are not allowed to sell for other HF members so you're getting banned as well OP. bye!

tfw when you dedicate hours of your life into making 10 multi accounts on the same hacking forum just to get them closed and repfucked within 3 days because you're that much of a basement dwelling perma-virgin to find something else better to do

Your insults have been truly top notch recently. You seem like you've lost your shit IRL - but please continue as it's funny as fuck to read. ?

I agree with you though on what you post. Some people try waaaaaay to hard to be cool.
