Thread: L33T Payment stuck?

De?th - August 24, 2016, 12:27 pm

So my friend has been telling me to hop on this site for a while now and I finally decided to bite the bullet and try it out, after silently browng for a while, he suggested grabbing L33T first so I have a chance on here (Supposedly people pick on new members alot).

I just went to pay via BTC for L33T and has confirmed on blockchain, but its still showing me this window on CoinPayments.. http :// prntscr dot com/c9y600

Help? :/

Is that page automatic?

Maybe try refreshing?

Damn, thanks for the replies!

Weird question, but can I rep myself when I buy leet, I can't post in the market area yet and I don't really know how to gain rep lol.

(Not rep begging, I know that isnt allowed)

No, you cant. Also, I wouldn't recommend talking about rep. Some people get salty and might neg you.

The transaction might take a while to go through. Once it happens, you will have to be upgraded manually and that might take a day or two, since he's a bit behind on work. Just be patient :)

Oh, and welcome, by the way!

No, you won't be able to give yourself rep, but you will get it pretty quickly as long as you're not being a troll or begging.

I wouldn't talk about rep homie, that shit will get you either negged or maybe even rep fucked like me.

Read the rules and keep on keeping on.
