Thread: Writing Garry's Mod Staff Applicaitons \(For servers\)

Appsrow - August 26, 2016, 3:01 am

Hello, i am writing Garry's Mod Applications (For Servers). PM me the template or post here.

Since my experience of being staff on more than 25 communities this application that i write will make your chances higher. This is just making your application seem nicer. If you don't get accepted because you are a minge or don't complete the requirments that will not be my problem.

To everyone you send me a template of the server/community you want to be staff on and i will fill it for you in a way that is very professional and makes your changes alot higher.

Guys this isn't difficult lol. PM him the application your server asks for, and he will fill it in for you.

It is indeed very popular.

There are like 6 thousand people playing DarkRP at the same time around 6 PM GMT.
