How this works?

You might be aware of handwriting analyze but ever did you heard - "Learn about a person - based on how he writes and phrases". Yep, heard right! I cannot tell much in details but I can analyze - What kind of person you are and how much successful you are based on how you write.

If you would like to Participate.

I will tell something about you which will match you basic mind set on Hackforums or the Internet. As I am not sure how you talk and work INREAL, so it will be difficult if you are a different person ONLINE and a different person OFFLINE. Therefore, it will be WHO & HOW ARE YOU ONLINE

ACTUALLY!

Not much to be said, if you want to join,

1st. Post on this thread.

2nd. Say you want your about details to be PM'd or Posted Here.

3rd. Wait and I'll dig into one of your old threads to analyze.

4th. Leave a Review after I've submitted. XD

Thankyou for the worthwhile time ?

Analysis -

Back when you were MEW. - it was 2k15?

You were determined to succeed in all your plans and earn money from them. Although, you also had lust, revenge and malice mindset which threw you in a vile state of mind sometimes or often. You became selfish gradually but a charming speech could've helped you in your interest. You loved to live a materialistic life instead of virtue if I am correct - back then. Many came to forward to help when you needed and life was yet luxurious. Free service end :P

Now - The Man of Many Faces - it is 2k16

Right now, you are of extreme nature and your comfortable life will get disturbed by circumstances. Your style says, there will be frequent disappointments, failures and problems but if you are more self-aware - you will find fruitful results because you need to know where and when to use these styles and when not. If not understood, your mind may drown you in misery. Sorry to say :(

End.

Pericles - August 27, 2016, 4:49 am

Thanks, and again, I said you liked to live as your speech declared that, your inner self, but there are times when we want to be rich but we can't.

Sometimes, being chill is considered as being cockyy as we know, people's thought differ from person to person. XD Have a Great Year Ahead.

Based on your thoughts as Pericle,

Your mind tend to live in a world of fantasy but you are a wise thinker and you like to do what you feel is right! At times just for your satisfaction, you like to get involved in certain difficult tasks without actually expecting any returns, If I got a point. You yet have less interest in making money. You know your mind well and conquered the same easily. Finally, you are well and been powerful with your mind control and process of thoughts and got some amazing powers at your end, correct me if I am wrong. XD Free time over.

I'd have to disagree with certain aspects but some hit the spot. I do indeed act on what I feel is right, even it is for my satisfaction without the expectation of monetary gain or any form of return. I have no problem speaking or acting out my mind. As for control, that's a different story that simply cannot be analyzed without real world observation however I won't disagree on that. What I do requires an immense amount of control.

What I will disagree with is the fantasy aspect, I do not go back on my word and I am fully willing to engage in anything I say. I will succeed or fail, there is no compromise. I will try everything at least once unless my mind declares to be no be just or within my moral guidelines.

Sorry, but I am just analyzing, neither am I benefiting them by telling what they did, neither am I helping them out in any way. It is just a philosophical understanding and is my college subject. I don't intent to make money out of my hobby, I got my business as a Hosting provider and a bit experienced coder, and I make a decent amount free-lancing.

You attract a variety of people and sometimes gain the favor of the masses. You come out with unique ideas and techniques even without prior experience and I believe you are a prominent person. You should lead your life according to your intuition and you'll find things are wonderful, because when you listen to the advice of others, failures recur one after another. You have some most powerful writing styles I've ever seen. Your note signifies sudden progress. You were commoner yesterday and have become popular and prominent overnight. You face with unusual circumstances and grab unexpected ascent in status. You are full of energy and sometimes become uncontrollable. You are frequent lost in thoughts and sometimes bother working over sleeping - even it may be shit posting, yet full of energy everytime. You are a person who sticks with his code of conduct. Based on how you write, I can say that you represent high principles and have virtuous qualities, which flourish without any interruption. Your stick with being at high moral standard which is pretty great. You have some nice anonymous qualities because of which unexpected changes may take place, getting hired because of your ideology. Although, because of simplicity efforts will not produce the desired results, e.g. if you wanted $300, you might get $250 but still you will get for your works XD, sometimes being too straight forward in business is a mess ya know :D

You are somewhat great, if I may say. You are an enviable person, not only to my vision but even to those who look up to you and you are somehow making a mansion out of everything. Sometimes you think why not quit everything and take some in-real journeys, which I prefer you must do, because your urge to travel extensively is your way to occupy high positions. Based on how you write, you got some family troubles yet who doesn't again, but stay aware of disloyal people because you can already sense them, but cannot actually point out right? XD It is fancy although for me.

So basically what you're doing, is having people post, then going back and looking at their old threads? Of course that tells you a lot about them, as that's all you're basing your results off of. Anybody can do that.

[EDIT] After reading through a few of the previous ones, there is quite a bit more speculation on your part than I expected. Care to give me a go?

You are charming and controlling plus you got some renowned achievements and high principles. As being said, you are also keen about your development. You are patient, honest and peace loving. You try to cope with every possible atmosphere, and never want to deal with things out of your business. Your ideas can bring great success if you try to show them off, atleast, because you have a fact of rapid development. Because of you being gentle you might face dangers and you've already known of this fact because you got cheated (it's not only love duh') which resulted in various difficulties.
