Might give it a shot. Never really liked GPT's as you could really only earn a lot by getting a ton of active referrals.

What's your country? The owner blocked some countries due to the high volume of fraud coming from them.

I'm from the Netherlands wich is pretty healthy, I doubt there's too many frauds here.

Weird... unless you're using a VPN routed through a blocked country? Idk, I see people registered from Belgium, France, and Germany with no issues. Wouldn't imagine the Netherlands would be any different.

Unless you've found a way tog et your specific IP blacklisted, or inherited one that has been. ?

I don't know, I can access the site itself but your specific link doesn't work for me. I'm not on a vpn btw but I'll try accessing with a US vpn later.

Depends on what you're good at, what you go for. The little easy things will take you forever. If you're getting at getting registers and surveys, fairly quick. 1-3 hours depending on the ones you go for and get. I've seen people do 2 hours a day and get $20-$30 only because they've mastered the survey conversions.
