Game & Region: CS:GO - NA

[Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s8XlgR5OGJc>]

This recruitment for all people who play CS:GO, whether you are a casual player or a very competitive player. This sector will consist of discussions, events, friendly matches, and more. I'll be the one handling the events and and such, so if anyone has any questions regarding the sector feel free to shoot me a PM. I'm not looking for the most skilled players in the world, new players and veterans are welcome. I'm just looking for people that are dedicated and passionate about the game.

Requirements

Be willing to have a good time.

No open or unresolved scam reports.

Must follow Synergy's handbook/rules.

Must be member of Hack Forums for at least a month.

Must not have a bad reputation within the Hack Forums community.

Have time to set aside for group events and activities such as friendly 10-mans and such.

Be respectful and mature around other members of the group, this includes the sector and the whole group.

A little side note, I ask personally that you do not cheat when it comes to events and activities within the group. This ruins the fun for other members trying to play legitimately and can ultimately result in consequences such as being banned from playing in these events and activities.

No. You'll know when the thread is closed.

If I am accepted how will I know?
You'll receive a PM from me.

Why wasn't I accepted and can I be accepted in the future?

We look through people's profiles thoroughly before deciding on whether or not you're accepted. I cannot state the exact reason why a person was not accepted. We highly recommend you have 2FA/Gauth enabled and no scam reports open on you. Those are the main reasons people may not get accepted. Again we cannot state why you weren't accepted. You may be eligible for acceptance later if your trust scan looks cleaner than last time (assuming that's the reason you were denied beforehand).

Rank: You don't wanna know?

About me: I've been playing CS for about 2 years now, and although I'm not super good at it, I have a lot of fun with it. For a good few months I got pretty good on Bshopping servers, although now I find it kind of boring, but bhop servers are what inspired me to get my first knife. I have played very little CEVO and ESEA, mostly because my skill is not at that point. However, the group application says ranks do not matter, and I'd much rather play stratroulette and actually have fun and laugh than getting upset because of how mean my teammates are. I'm on my computer literally all the time unless I'm at school, out with friends, or sleeping, so I could devote quite a bit of time.

Interesting clips:

These super old montages that I made when I first started playing, and decided to upload a couple months ago. (I know the editing was ass, remember I was new when I made these.)

Why I want to join?

Joining a group on HF has always been my dream, and joining a group that is literally meant to have fun with other people and play the game I'm on all day anyway, sounds too good to be true.

Thanks for reading my application!

(I know I have Gauth off and my forum activity is pretty ass, but I'm gonna change both?)

Do you have any competitive experience?Unfortunately not for a while, however back in the days of game-battles (the memories lol) I was in a COD: WaW clan that came in the top 10 of the hardcore search and destroy EU table ?

I also made a singles clan on MW2 & 3 and done quite well

What do you expect out of the Synergy Xbox One Gaming SectorI just want to meet other people with similar interests and be apart of this cool group, there seems like a lot of interesting people in Synergy and I'd love to represent a team like that!

Gaming Experience

I have been playing CSGO since it was released in 2012. I have been a active Counter Strike 1.6 player before that and I used to constantly attend Cafe level tournaments.

I have more than 3000+ hours on CSGO and I am still active. I have won various cafe/college events and have taken part in many online tournaments.

My current rank in MatchMaking is Legendary Eagle Master and I also used to be a Global Elite before. I have never in my life cheated on any game/platform. I always think fair play is the best play.

Apart from CSGO , I also play a lot of Dota 2 . I have around 2000+ hours on that too.

PC Configuration

The PC I use is a outdated one. The only reason why I game is due to my passion for gaming.

My PC Specs:- Intel Core2Duo, ATI 7750, 4 GB RAM . This spec gives me around 6-120 fps in CSGO.

Competitive Experience

As I mentioned earlier also I have a good amount of competitive experience. Played many cafe level tournaments. Played many online cups and also has won many college events.

How much can I dedicate to the group

I can dedicate a very good amount of time to the group. I usually play around 3-4 hours a day and I can also do more and be out with the members :D

What can I bring into Synergy?

I can bring a good amount of experience. I can help out people and can be chill guy hanging around playing pugs/scrim.

Why should I be accepted?

I feel like I have a lot of passion for gaming as gaming is the thing that has helped me get the better of depression. I have been on HF for the past 4 years and has been active throughout. I am social guy and I love to interact with new people and I always everyone's opinion :D

Cevo: <http://cevo.com/member/769424/> | Only played 1 game, 21+ Efficacy

FaceIT: <https://www.faceit.com/en/players/tylugh> | Only played once on this account. 2.3 K/D

YouTube (multiple CS:GO videos) <http://youtube.com/c/dtowncsgo>

My old / sold steam accounts:

- 1) <http://steamcommunity.com/id/tylughrust2/> (200 Wins before sold, Global Elite) [decided to do most-vac challenge thing]
- 2) <http://steamcommunity.com/id/wrist-/> (150 Wins before sold, Supreme Master First Class) [got griefing banned, made new and cheated once unbanned]

I've competed in a few FaceIT tournaments only to not be able to compete them due to my / teammates inactivity and unavailability to finish.

I created a team on CEVO a few years ago with HF member Abide, which we ended because a few of the members became inactive and we had no real chance of going anywhere.

I play CS every day / every other day along with many other games, but I definitely main CS:GO. Depending on how I feel a day depends what role I play, however I tend to stick to being an IGL along with whatever other role I do whether it be entry, awper, or just a simple rifler.

I'm amazing at reading and predicting the enemy, but usually the better I am at that the worse I am at my overall skill.

I feel I would be a great addition to your group as someone who has great overall knowledge of the game, and someone who's able to get along with people very easily.

Background: Back in 2013, I was introduced to this game called CSGO. I'm a newb at that time and I didn't want to put in the dedication required to improve, so I bought my way into a semi private cheat called Atrazine? It took Valve nearly 9months to get me VAC banned and by that time, cheating was really getting boring to me.

I took a 6 months break and it was somewhere around the middle of 2015, did I come back. I didn't come back playing legit, I know some people and they let me buy into Rogue Internal. I play until nearly March of 2016, before I was gamebanned (Overwatched).

I actually wanted to be overwatched more and more as I play. I tuned up my settings to as sketch and obvious as possible. It was the only way for me to stop playing this game and finally free myself of it.

It was around the middle of Summer 2016, did Overwatch come out. I play that continuously with my friends until I recently hit Diamond. I've stopped playing ever since. Me and some friends are waiting for the Halloween loot boxes before we play again.

In between the Overwatch games, I suddenly bought another copy of CSGO and this time I told myself no more cheats. I've reinstalled my OS and cleared off all the folders that have loaders in it.

Started playing continuously and improving my own game. Started really enjoying playing CSGO legit and that seeing my constant improvement in aim and game sense really motivates me to go on.

So with that said, I saw Synergy recruiting for CSGO NA section and I just have to try my chances. I told my full story honestly, and hope that Limit will evaluate my application.

Thank you and have a great day.

Hey my name's Malik and I'm a Playstation 4 enthousiast. I'm 19 years old. I play on my Playstation 4 when the stocks stop (around 09:00 - 10:00) from Monday to Friday. And in the weekend I'm 24 hours gaming Destiny or Black Ops 3. I play this to reduce stress (what doesn't actually help haha, it only gets worse..). I'm a really competitive player and also consider my-self as a good player in any kind of game, from Destiny to FIFA 17. But I've got no tournament experience unfortunately. I live in Rotterdam, Netherlands. I would really like to meet new people that are on the same level as me. Even if the guy is 15 years old I can still just play with him if he's thinking and talking as a grown up. I'm atleast 2 hours a day in the forum (most likely 4 hours or so).

I wish all the best of luck with their applications, may the best be chosen!

Games: I mainly play CS:GO on the PC but I also have an xbox one which I play, Mortal Kombat X, Battlefield Hardline, Battlefield 4, and a ton of other games.

Xbox Gamertag: Zfya

Steam Profile (New account from a while ago):

<http://steamcommunity.com/profiles/76561198117098961/>

Gaming Past: I got my first gaming console when I was around 4 and it was a Nintendo 64.

My first ever game was Toy Story 2 and I played that game nonstop until I upgraded to a PS1, then PS2, the Xbox, then Xbox 360 and now I play Xbox One and PC.

My first ever 360 game was Halo 3 and I used to play that game from the time I got home from middle school until I passed out playing.

I have and always had a passion for gaming.

To me it's mostly entertaining and fun.

Counter-Strike: I started playing CS:GO back in March of 2015 and have loved CS since.

My current rank is MG1, because I took a 6 month break.

Last year I was LE.

I used to love doing Call of Duty Game Battles back in the day and when I heard about a competitive game as serious as CS:GO I had to get it.

I'm currently not part of a team but I did have a team for FACEIT last year and I either played AWP or entry fragger, because I was good at both.

I recently got back into CS after that 6 month break and unfortunately, at this moment my mouse is broken and one is on the way in the mail, so I can't play CS for a few days ?

Discord Username: Weed

Gaming hours: I work part time to help support my mom and step dad at the moment while i'm looking into colleges, I work as a contractor with my step dad and get paid around $20 an hour. It's a good paying job and I only work 3 days a week, so if i'm not working or hanging out with friend, i'm at my computer or Xbox gaming.

Why should I be accepted?: I've never been a part of a group on HackForums so it would be my dream to be a part of a gaming one. I spend most of my day gaming after work, and I would like to meet some new people with the same mindset as me, people who enjoy gaming.

Thank you for taking the time to read my application, I hope I am accepted into your group.

Gaming Past: My first gaming device I had was a DS Lite and I played pokemon fire red, emerald and Diamond on it and had some great memories on there, then i found a N64 at a garage sale and played alot of Donkey Kong 64 and Mario 64, super smash bros and my freind loned me golden eye 64 too, it was awesome. Then got a PS2 and played some off road with sometimes playing crash bandicoot (loved that fucker) and FIFA, later on i got a PSP (my favourite fucking device, they are so cheap and have endless things u can do with them), played ratchet and clank on there, also played God Of War (amazing games) while running a gba emulator which is awesome and a couple of emulators. That is where i saw the fire emblem series and a patched version of ace attorney and had alot of fun. Now i have a wii u and use it mainly for exclusives since i love nintendo and use my

But i'm guessing dedication is relating to how many posts I post in the subforum and most likely it will be a good amount only if gaming related. I'm usually not interested in spamming lounges or anything not group related just to boost up the subforum or "meet an invisible criteria". If you measure dedication by play time with the group then I guess that's a piece of cake.

Hi There!

I will be applying to the Counter Strike: Global Offensive sector.

I don't know why, but I was really big on playing the original Counter Strike games on xbox, I used to be addicted to the console variants of the game and thought the whole world revolved around them. Later, around the time of CS:GO being released one of my friends let me use his steam account as he was going to uni and had no time for games. The only game that I played on his account full of AAA games was CSGO. I got into the game and really enjoyed it. Eventually it was time for me to get my own account, I played around 2000 hours on that account and thought it was time to get into something else., At the end of last year I competed in a LAN tournament with 100+ people and finished in the top ten. I have also got into modding and mapping for CS:GO and find it very enjoyable when I don't feel like playing a game. I am Gold Nova 2 (MG2 before deranks).

I feel like I could introduce a more organised professional like side to Synergy, Such as team training on maps, or just learning teamwork together. I have had lots of experience doing this and it helps you gain real life skills as well, not just becoming a pro in a virtual game.

Thanks and I wish the best of luck to everyone else who applied.
