Thread: Junk and PM Prune

Omniscient - August 31, 2016, 1:30 pm

I just took HF offline to do some pruning. The Junk is completely pruned and user post counts are recounted.

I'm also in the middle of PM pruning. That should take some hours actually. I don't normally take HF offline to do the PM prunes.

Enjoy and thanks.

Black Kodak - August 31, 2016, 1:31 pm

I like this omni, thanks man:-)

SIM-82498 - August 31, 2016, 1:31 pm

Tweaking - August 31, 2016, 1:32 pm

Will you ever prune posts of closed accounts? ;)

J?son - August 31, 2016, 1:32 pm

I was wondering what you were up to. I lost 2000 posts

Thanks for the update.

Gary - August 31, 2016, 1:33 pm

What do you mean by PM prune?

?Opulence - August 31, 2016, 1:33 pm

Good work Omni, keeping HF on point!

EDIT: just noticed my post count has dropped, also my prestige but I assume that's because post count is a factor in prestige..

Description - August 31, 2016, 1:33 pm

I was like "what the fuck. why did i lose my posts"

Well thanks for keeping us updated.

W?lf - August 31, 2016, 1:33 pm

Awesome! now i get to see my real post count even though it only went down by roughly 100 posts

:p

Supreme??????? - August 31, 2016, 1:34 pm

Get ready for the "what happened to my post count?" threads.

Omniscient - August 31, 2016, 1:34 pm

Quote:Will you ever prune posts of closed accounts? ;)

Eventually I will prune all posts older than X days. Most likely somewhere around 5-7 years past. Since we're coming up on 10 years of HF I think a prune of the first few years of posts is needed. When that prune happens then many accounts will have 0 posts and then those will get pruned.

Likely this will happen before the end of the year.

I noticed the website was down for a bit, and now I'm having trouble creating a thread, does this have something to do with it?

Nice to see you're (still) going to do that even though you didn't like the idea when I suggested it 2 years ago.

I didn't like the idea 2 years ago because it wasn't the right time to prune. However, before we upgrade to MyBB 1.8x it must be done.

Nice stuff. We were a bit overdue for a post recount if I remember correctly the last time we had a prune there wasn't a recount that was done with it. Wouldn't be surprised if a lot of the 24k award recipients are a lot below the 24k post count.
