Yes you can but it might be easier for the you to follow if you used the same program. However if you are already experienced with the stock market, then Robinhood may be beneficial.

Okay so first off let me tell you guys that this is WELL worth the money. I've finally finished watching all the videos included. I can't even believe that OP is selling this. This insider knowledge is insane!!! I'm already earning some money. Not much right now, but once I start investing more I can see myself making thousands :0
