Thread: My 3rd dog - Stories

Lufasu - September 4, 2016, 7:54 pm

So , this is going to be kind of long .

so , Animals its my biggest love dogs , cats , birds everything.

I move to my new house a 4years ago not a big house tbh medium / little .
So I was thinking to bring a dog to my house and i actually bring :)

Ponch - My first dog , i adopt him.

Short description - Ponch was found on the streets , probaly his owner throw him so the pet savers take him.

Ponch living with me 4 years , at the start he was scared as fuck but i know why.
Now he living his life , everyday im going down with him for 30minutes .

Ponch is a - Japanese Spitz

Panda -

Tbh i dont know what kind of dog are she but she is really cute and she listen and she is the best .

I adopt panda too , found her on facebook group 'Let the Animals Live' i dont really know her background story but i know that she found a good house and a good friend to live with (ponch).

Here she is after sometime -

And my new dog that i bring home today (morning)

I call him 'Charley'

(dont worry , he dont have problem with his eyes :D , its just the flash)

Charley has a background story -

Charlie found today on the street, he had no collar.

And he was really hungry and thirsty apparently.

It was deserted and looks bad (as you can see in the picture) ..

He should still shower but I want to wait at least a week until he gets used to his new home.

I have to take him to a veterinarian because he has a sore foot.

Of course this is the first time I take a dog from the street ..

So I went straight to ask the Association of Zoo and authorities if he has an owner and if possible I'll leave it to me.

They said I could leave it with me ..

But I have to put him Chip, do it vaccines and treatments.

Of course I agreed and now Charlie finished his first vaccination and I am waiting for some time to bathe him :)

Charlie race is - Cavalier King Charles Spaniel dog.

Hope you like that :)

Sorry for the bad grammar.

i tried to get a cat too but seems my dogs cant be friendly with them..

so i gave my cat to my mom's house to live there.

also when you rescue a dog/cat/every animal its feel so nice to bring them a new house and life

Cute dogs you got there!

Although I love every dog equally, I prefer to look at Pitbull, Stafford(shire) dogs, (American) bully breeds and more :)

But these are really cute dogs haha nice names as well, especially Panda hahaha

Just one tip.. Make sure Charley won't bite your finger ? I hope you get why haha?

haha this youtube video XD i wanted to adopt pitbull you know the ones that rescue from fights .

but seems like they are still dangerous and will not be friendly with other dogs & owners for a week or two

Yeah man haha :p

That all depends on where they are put to "adopt" and how bad they got treated / "fixed" (can't use the word fixed for a dog, but I don't know the right word for it sorry).

Anyway I think Pitbulls are underrated, often seen as "dangerous" where I live, while 90% of them is just afraid or enthusiastic haha

But I understand your concern, having a killer machine running around your house who "might" snap ("might" because it's no guarantee it will or will not happen), is a bit scary I know haha

If you've seen 2 dogs fight with eachother while you weren't paying attention you'll see a lot of stress, anger and anxiety that you won't forget that easy haha anyway....

Great that you adopted those dogs! Many people want a "puppy" but don't think about older dogs who are ready to be loved again, which is a beautiful thing in my opinion ?

I know , the one i tried to adopt was aggressive to everyone beacuse his last owner went to jail and threat him with fights and alot of hits.

So i cant handle this on my house when i have 2 dogs and one of them is a puppy /=

That sucks but yeah that's correct.. Put 1 "false" dog in your pack and you'll be out of balance. Good luck with your doggies and feel free to post some more photos in the future! ?
