(Feb 19, 2017 10:25 AM)PhunPhunds Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Just went through my 1st hour with TheVBScripter. Here's what I have to say:

TL:DR Version: TheVBScripter can sell puppies to other puppies. If you're into marketing of ANY kind and do ewhoring as well, BUY THIS SERVICE. You will learn a lot.

-It was disciplined. Like any quality business endeavor should be. Timely and focused, every topic we covered was so at the pace and depth i needed it to be.

If i felt I learned what I needed to, no time was spent moving on to the next topic. At the same time there was ALWAYS more to be learned on the topics i chose.

-It was versatile. I was given options on how I would best receive the service at almost every part of it. At a point it was like a full contact wrestling match with a trainer focused on showing me how to do things successfully. At the same time it was like a classroom with chalkboard full of ideas to scribble down for later consumption. (Almost too much good content to absorb at once.)

-It was fun. Learning with him was lighthearted and playful. Lots of laughs to be had with learning new things. I was happy all the way through.

-It was demanding. This service is brought to you by a professional in my opinion. He is very forgiving of misunderstandings and will go the distance to explain anything you request. At the same time there is NO ROOM for bullshitting. Staying on topic and responding in a timely manor is a must.

My suggestions for taking this service: Make sure you're physically comfortable for the time you'll spend.

Turn your phone off, tell everyone else to go away. Give him your full attention and focus. Speak clearly and stay on topic at all times.

What you put into this service is what you'll get back. I'm 100% Satisfied.

Honestly, I could mentor you but at this point I still feel offended by your rude behaviour, so helping you by mentoring you would be helping a guy who didn't showed any kind of respect in the past while I didn't do him any wrong, but if you're able to solve that issue with me I'm more than happy to be your mentor.

An honest review of 'TheVBScripiter's' mentoring:

Before the lesson began, I had a 5 minute introduction and we spoke about what we were going to go over during the 1 hour lesson. Shortly into the lesson, we did some role-playing which I was really bad at but OP helped me by giving me some really good lines to say if I was ever to get approached by time-wasters. We also discussed how to go about verification without having to photoshop an image of the customer's name on a piece of paper etc. I definitely wouldn't doubt OP's SEing skills as when he pretended to be the 'eWhore' and I, the customer/time-waster, I couldn't think of anything to counter OP, as in "how do I know you're not a bot?". He pretty much got me to the point of buying in like 5 minutes lmao...

Overall, the session was really good, and it's worth noting down any of the replies he uses.

Why are you charging more to tell someone less?

I get it, it's a business model...But say I wanted your experienced e-whore package, is your knowledge really worth double the cost of your lowest listing?

I assume if someone purchases the experienced e-whoring lesson they know whats what, and probably only have a couple questions for you. Opposed to how much energy and time you will be spending teaching a completely new person...You might want to consider to rearrange your prices.

Opposed to how much energy and time you will be spending teaching a completely new person...You might want to consider to rearrange your prices. You're assuming things the wrong way, because you got no idea why I do things my way, which I got complimented about a lot.

Although you're selling an "automator" for e-Whoring, which is in my eyes incredible lazy and LQ, I'll tell / explain to you why I charge different prices per member.

"Am I charging more to tell someone less?"

No sir, this is a wrong statement.

Let's see how I look at my "students" so you will understand why I got different prices.

Beginners:

- Need a lot of time (sessions) to understand even the basics of the e-Whore art
- Need to set up a lot (advertisements, different packs, random photos, "prewritten lines" if preferred, etc.
- Do purchase more "hours" of mentoring because they got an extreme amount of questions compared to "experts"
- They often doubt if they continue with Bluestacks + Kik or want other "advice" which I help them with
- Beginners LOVE to "roleplay" (a part of my session) where I teach them how to reply to time wasters and more (read my vouches to get this confirmed)

Average/Experts: (who do I put these in 1 category, because I often helped "experts" for an "average" price).

- Need LESS time to understand questions, so I can teach 10x more than I teach "beginners"
- Need almost no help with anything, except some on-point questions that are hard(er) to teach
- Are often wealthier (earned more with e-whoring) so they don't mind to pay a little bit more for HQ mentoring
- They are often "stuck" at something instead of talking about issues like "I can't earn" or "How to get traffic", which takes more energy than explaining something

To summary my answer in a short reply:

Due to the level of knowledge, the investment money and the previous experiences and succeeded sales of "average/experts" ewhore members, I raised the price.

It's more than fair for beginners and so far I only got compliments from all my students.

Extra informaton:

If you reread my thread properly you'll find this:

"Tell me why you want a "custom" session and what you'd like to be taught. I'll accept or deny your offer with reason why I do this."

This means you can offer me a custom price for any amount of hours + a price that you prefer to pay.

I'll accept it or deny it including why I denied your offer.

So don't be confused about my prices, I thought very well about it before I even posted it. ?

P.S.

I added this message (reply/explain) to my OP, so members can read why I do this.

P.P.S.

This guy bought 25 nudes for $20. And he paid me $25 after for more pics. < Thanks to being CUSTOMER friendly and NOT pushy ?

It doesn't matter.

What I could do (if you pay upfront) is:

- 3 hours at 1 day
- 3 days 1 hour per day
- 1 hour today and 2 tomorrow (or visa versa)

As long as you pay for the hours upfront, you're allowed to plan them as you like.

If you want me to mentor you 1 day and you aren't sure about the other 2 hours/days, you can always buy more hours after.

I won't charge more or less.

So again:

Paying for 3 hours = whenever you want to be mentored, starting from 1 hour per day.

No 30min today and 2,5 hours tomorrow haha I hope you get it! ?

Yes, I do.

I just can't mentor you because of 2 reasons.

Reason 1: (26 IP's is a huge risk to deal with)

<https://gyazo.com/7b36f33d8b6faa04c1e3546d49e78297.png>

Reason 2: (your reputation says you're a "refund asker")

Sorry, I am not here to offend you.

I just never mentor members who are sketchy (in my eyes), because I deliver a HQ service, so I don't like to worry about mentoring a member who's asking for refunds after / a multi-accounter. ?

1. I use a lot of VPN/Proxies
2. I will send as friends and family to prevent me from doing chargeback a
3. I was just asking if you still do it because I wanted to bump your thread.

Again, I won't mentor you, I'm sorry.

Your reputation points out that you can't be trusted anyway, I don't appreciate such behaviour.

1. It's not allowed to use VPN's at HF (read the rules)
2. If I'd mentor you, I'd only accept BTC (PayPal is for trusted members only).
3. I don't see any reason why you want to bump my thread, but that doesn't mean I will mentor you.

Keep in mind, mentoring you will bring me $15 for 1 hour.

In that hour of mentoring a possible multi-accounter, I could have made more money e-Whoring myself.

I run this service to help out others who need e-Whore help, but I don't mentor members who I deem sketchy / rude or a multi-accounter/

I hope I made myself clear, I'm not here to flame you.

I just want to tell you that I won't change my mind, I'm sorry. ?

lilmoeyx - November 18, 2016, 4:38 am

Why the fuck did you rep me delete the rep I just wanted to bump your thread and I get a -3 in return what the fuck?

What the fuck is wrong with the community repping me when I haven't even dealt with them, first deal with me to rep and also those scam reports are false you aren't the owner of HF to tell me to read the rules I will read the rules myself.

I'm making more with e-Whoring myself than I earn from teaching others.

I think $15 for 1 hour is cheap enough, especially if you take a look at the revenues that can be made after (like my screenshots, $60, $100, $225, etc.) ?

It's no problem, but you'd be spending $25 (for 2 hours) to learn the basics.

If you check out Pittinger's "beginners" thread (very detailed) or buy my "eBook + eWhore pack", you'll have a good start as well but for a cheaper price.

Just went through my 1st hour with TheVBScripter. Here's what I have to say:

TL:DR Version: TheVBScripter can sell puppies to other puppies. If you're into marketing of ANY kind and do ewhoring as well, BUY THIS SERVICE. You will learn a lot.

-It was disciplined. Like any quality business endeavor should be. Timely and focused, every topic we covered was so at the pace and depth i needed it to be.

If i felt I learned what I needed to, no time was spent moving on to the next topic. At the same time there was ALWAYS more to be learned on the topics i chose.

-It was versatile. I was given options on how I would best receive the service at almost every part of it. At a point it was like a full contact wrestling match with a trainer focused on showing me how to do things successfully. At the same time it was like a classroom with chalkboard full of ideas to scribble down for later consumption. (Almost too much good content to absorb at once.)

-It was fun. Learning with him was lighthearted and playful. Lots of laughs to be had with learning new things. I was happy all the way through.

-It was demanding. This service is brought to you by a professional in my opinion. He is very forgiving of misunderstandings and will go the distance to explain anything you request. At the same time there is NO ROOM for bullshitting. Staying on topic and responding in a timely manor is a must.

My suggestions for taking this service: Make sure you're physically comfortable for the time you'll spend.

Turn your phone off, tell everyone else to go away. Give him your full attention and focus. Speak clearly and stay on topic at all times.

What you put into this service is what you'll get back. I'm 100% Satisfied.

I would be interested in an hour and I feel as if this would be a good investment for ewhoring. Thanks in advance and look forward to hearing from you, and if i was on your ignore list for a certain reason I understand if you do not want to mentor me.

I don't have a paypal or own any btc. I would be interested in an hour and I feel as if this would be a good investment for ewhoring. I'm retired from eWhoring which means I only mentor members who I deem "worth it", because $15 for 1 hour of my time isn't really what I am waiting for.

I'm sorry, but I will not mentor you. ?

Thank you, take care & please do not reply to my thread again (to prevent SPAM / irrelevant posts with thanks/yw/thanks/yw replies). ?

I'm still pretty interested in this! I want to start with e-working. Is it possible to get all the information via Skype chat?

No, I only mentor at Discord.

Skype is only for those who need E-Whore support (who bought one of my products).

I am going to turn this thread around to make it an all-in-one thing.

Like (example, not sure yet):

- how to get a nice Kik package for free
- how to spread your photos
- how to gain traffic
- how to convert traffic into sales
- how to automate sales
- how to stay in touch after (for "free" gifts/money)
- etc.

It will be a full course for a few hours, but again, I'm not sure about that yet.

I do not need the money, plus I will be busy with my job soon so those are just some ideas now.
