Hello ?

This is the second time i'm scammed by the ub3r member.

Scammer Profile = <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2767748>

Current Username = Topher Brink

Deal was that I'll give him 152 $ btc and in return i'll get 10,000 INR.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Now it's more than 3 days, i am not getting any response. Damn can't believe i lost 304 $ in a single day :D

I think i should not go for exchange on HF. I thought it was good community, but thanks to scammers. They change my mind.

Note : I'll remove this thread if Topher Brink will return my 152$ btc or 10,000 INR.

man this site is just terrible when it comes to scammers there is no one reviewing the disputes and banning people when they don't respond to the claim, their accounts don't even get restricted from market place, while it's under review. admins are just useless in this website tbh. :(waste of money on 1337 that i spent tbh
