Cheers

Price is negotiable, PM me your offers.

Mino - September 7, 2016, 6:43 pm

My half is for sale for 175$.

If you are worried about it taking a long time to get your people invited, I am on VERY often, and can add anyone you want, as I am a group leader.

Change the price in the OP then.

Also if I sell the group within an year, you will be completely refunded.

But you must be approved by me to own this.

cry cry if you was gaining even a small amount of profit you wouldn't be trying so hard to sell it, gone from $250 to $175 in the matter of hours not sales trashing simply warning potential buyers of your false allegations

I have 3 other projects to manage. If I had full control and time on my hands this thread wouldn't exist. I haven't even had time to post on HF let alone recruit and train members in the SF.

im not surprised you're posting so much shit, I mean, you're wearing a paid signature. That says enough about you and how much you make.

Chicken Buff - September 8, 2016, 11:27 pm

I would be willing to purchase BOTH positions IF I were to get a "leader" spot in the group. Mainly so I don't need to go through the trouble of messaging people back and forth to send invites/kick people etc. Of course Grim would need to approve of this AND upon be "abusing" the privilege it would be taken away. If possible let me know and I would be willing to negotiate a price.

grim is not accepting anymore leaders as far as I know.

Mino and Moxi are on skype all the time and add members at your disposal. Grim is also constantly online if they aren't available which is extremely rare.

Here's the thing, I'm a leader and I'm on A LOT, for leadership spot in nightmare it costs a ton, I'll add people for you when ever! Please let us know

In this case, I am still interested BUT would not be willing to pay that much of an amount. And how would I guarantee that I won't just get "kicked" or something. In general I don't think its worth it without leader perms in the group tbh. Its basically just saying "here now your in nightmare and heres your own sub forum in our subforum, thanks for your $300+". I can't see it being worth it tbh. I also don't see the big deal of just making me a leader if I went ahead and purchased it.

Just an FYI leadership spots in Nigtmare can cost 1000$.

Send me your offer in pm for the sf and I'll let you know,

Also grim will give me a refund for what I payed for it and then I'll pay you what you payed back
