Count me in mate. Joining this!!!

SIM-2015410 - September 12, 2016, 9:05 pm

What advantage do those joining early get over those who join later? You say "take advantage of this contest now" but there is no difference between someone who joins the day before the results which is unfair on those who join today?

Exactly what I wanted to ask, how about making it that you get one entry for each day you have the signature on?? makes it fair for everyone.
