Could someone explain this policy to me ? Because im not a mind reader.. So what exactly this mean ?

" edits that break layout. "

First of what would be classified as "layout"

I think what it is saying is don't try to put special characters and commands in an attempt to exploit some sort of bug that could mess up the MyBB layout.

"RepKilled Because of my Religion " is totally unacceptable user title.

1. Don't know your religion.
2. Don't care to know your religion.
3. Help Docs are clear that you can't complain about RKO in your profile.
4. Your RKO was due to a username which had special characters which broke layout. Anyone can view your username history to see it.

Yeah, bye bye.
