Thread: Top 10 reasons why someone is denied Ub3r ?

RegularJoe - September 16, 2016, 7:05 am

Anyone curious about the reasons you are denied Ub3r like I am?

Here's a list of reasons why someone is denied.

1. LQ post/threads
2. You have too many neut/neg
3. You didn't post enough
4. Omni just doesn't like you
5. Not enough donations(?)

Feel free to add on to the list :)

This is a thread created by Omni a while back regarding this topic.

I've donated a lot and got denied. I don't think that's the reason why I got denied. I got a ton of warnings for lqp and such.

You get perm denied for being a multi so you can add that lol

Just here to prove some points wrong, I'm approved.

I could believe every point Omni made in his thread honestly.

Cha0 - September 16, 2016, 9:19 am

I believe there only one reason tbh;
Omni doesnt like you.

Cammy - September 16, 2016, 9:21 am

You're a potential threat to the community/marketplace

The reason I am permanently denied (imo) is because I was constantly shitposting in the past & had bad reputation due to my asshole behavior & 12 y/o intelligence level posts. However, now I have more HQ posts than in the past & a lot more reputation. Sadly, the permanent IS permanent so Omni will not revoke it.

It also depends on how many disputes you have and if your ip matches with other members I think

HIGH PAID FELLA - September 16, 2016, 9:25 am

If I was Omni I would just do a mini-review of the account based on random factors, and then form his own opinion which is either a yes or no.

Gary - September 16, 2016, 9:26 am

Donation is never a cause for being denied lmao.

Trust me.
