Thread: Is being trans a requirement in order to get a skeet invite ?

Gods Accomplice - September 16, 2016, 1:35 pm

I am honestly on the brink of injecting estrogen into my body after looking for an invite code for so long. If this is the only way then be it.

What are the risks health wise if the injection goes wrong ?

Also does anyone know who to contact once you inject the estrogen ?

You inject the estrogen via your pee-hole for quickest results. No health risks.

Any experienced trans willing to assist me in the injection ? (Preferably a skeet user)

you don't inject estrogen

just snort it. no health issues and you won't even want to play cs:go when you make millions being an e-whore

Hormones are to be injected only into the thigh or buttock muscle. When injecting, be careful of nerves, veins, and bones. The buttock is the most common place people inject. You can switch buttock cheeks to avoid bruises and sores. After you inject into these muscles, you might be sore for a day or two.
