You have a pretty dope setup. You should get three monitors, that would look beast.

You have a nice setup. I don't have a setup at the moment I have only just moved in to my own house so I haven't had the time.

I guess I'll have one soon.

I can see your driving cert. Good on you.

jujuger - September 17, 2016, 6:12 am

Op your setup looks like my friend's setup, what's your irl name?

As for mine, I do not have a camera. :P

2 monitors 3 comps, I just change the input of the monitors to switch comps. I really don't care for extra monitors.

Ha Haaa - September 17, 2016, 6:29 am

How come you guys have more than 1 monitor?

Roldorin - September 17, 2016, 6:29 am

I don't even have my own gaming PC lol.

Because it is way easier.

Lets say you play a game in full screen you still have a screen on the side to do other stuff when you are dead for example.

So you got 3 whole different computer to play at once??

Thats pretty extreme mate.

No, It can all be linked to one PC (If the graphics card is capable).
