Thread: Prestige Requirement

Omniscient - September 17, 2016, 11:52 am

You are now required to have 25 Prestige to post in the CS forum. Requirement is bypassed if you're upgraded into L33t or Ub3r (not 3p1c).

Trolling is just out of control and this will do a great job at reducing the problem.

Thank you.

VeloCityMods - September 17, 2016, 11:52 am

Awesome, Thanks for this.

ohxerxe - September 17, 2016, 11:54 am

BigPaste - September 17, 2016, 12:15 pm

Don't worry. We still have some trolls on here with that requirement like Vuno.

Gary - September 17, 2016, 12:15 pm

I know I shouldn't say this but the regular members talking about random shit was hilarious.

Do you need to be a trans to get a skeet invite lmao

But I respect the decision made even though most of the members that post here are regulars who don't have much prestige.

That was a serious question. I needed to know if I should become a transgender to get a skeet invite.

Katarina Du Couteau - September 17, 2016, 12:17 pm

Finally the skids are removed. Thanks

Fuck yes, this forum was getting autistic by the minute. Thanks for this Omni, this will greatly reduce the amount of trolls

Steve - September 17, 2016, 12:41 pm

Great idea, while the activity might be reduced its literally just trimming out LQ activity. Nice update.

Mojo™ - September 17, 2016, 1:34 pm

90% of the people who are browsing the CS:GO section right now can't post this is the best thing to ever happen.

Stashyy - September 17, 2016, 1:35 pm

You should include the CS:GO Lobby Talk section in this so that we don't get newbies making "rage hack lobbies."

Hustle is a hustle. Ppl need to make that money some way Lol

Happeh - September 17, 2016, 4:14 pm

Know you probably get this alot about all different sections but a moderator/mentor permissions wouldn't go amiss here either. Lots of members use this to spam their hacks etc. and don't post threads in the correct sections.

zohanhacks - September 17, 2016, 4:24 pm

Thanks omni but rip mek abdul elek

Raeik - September 17, 2016, 4:54 pm

Zexo - September 18, 2016, 3:25 am

Most of the autism was from upgraded cheat providers but i'm sure they will be punished more now.

Mr. Thijs - September 18, 2016, 4:03 am

Good that you made it that way, hope the trolling will reduce.
