Thread: Scammed \$21 BTC by Danskeren \(3200681\) || + MULTI ACCOUNTER

Pittinger - September 18, 2016, 10:05 am

Sad I have to do this, but oh well.

BACKGROUND

Fazzer has been selling me AGC for quite some time now, and I've never had any problems with him.

But recently, one of his gift cards got removed from my account and the claim code is now locked. Since I've already sent the payment, I asked him to refund which he refused. I don't really care about the $21, doing this just to warn the community. Oh and he's a multi.

THE SCAM

So let's get started.

Dankeren (UID=3200681) is Fazzer's (UID=3149184) new account. He uses facebook:farzad.henareh.7 as his Skype account. So if you have him on your contacts list, this is a warning to you.

On 15/9/2016, he sold me two Amazon codes that I've redeemed to my account. I sent him the payment because they were both okay at the time.

Around 30 minutes after, one of the cards got pulled back, and the code was locked. I notified him immediately.

Asking for a refund

You can check the code for yourself: 23NF-SV2T6R-NYW3

If you check it, it shows up as a $30 code, but once you click Redeem, you'll see that it's actually locked.

Here's proof, although you can check it yourself if you wish:

He ignored me for a few days, and today he finally got back at me and told me he won't refund. Apparently it's somehow my loss that his code got locked. ?

MULTI ACCOUNTING

Then he tells me that he's not banned, which struck me as odd because 'Fazzer' definitely is banned. He then admitted that it is his old account.

Admitting that he is Fazzer

I go back and check the date of an earlier deal, which matches with a vouch on my thread.

But just in case he deletes it or something, I decided to make sure to get proof that Fazzer really is Danskeren.

I've sent him a link to some old thread with a little bait and waited for him:

And sure enough, he shows up:

I would like to thank Mr. Robot for this neat little trick that helped me catch a multi.

A little bonus - for your enjoyment, here's some scammer logic.

What is it with every scammer that they have to call someone a 'kid'? ?

Anyways, just another day on HF. Stay safe fellas! ?

At least to attempt to read the post before commenting. He already stated that he won't refund me.

I'm only doing this to show the community that he is a multi and a scammer, so no one else loses money.

His first account is closed (Fazzer), the other one is still around. Also he stated that he's a student with loans, so I guess that's his reasoning.

?Fazzer - September 18, 2016, 12:56 pm

I knew that guy was a scammer. He tried to impose me.

Edit: I am not sure if he imposed me or whatever. But this is not good. I think that's why he is banned from Hf.

I hope people don't neg rep me.

Dark Smile - September 19, 2016, 9:49 am

Keep up your good work! And kick that scammers out of community!!! ?

LastSession III - September 19, 2016, 9:08 pm

Jolene - September 20, 2016, 4:13 pm

Everyone, stay away from Fazzer/Danskeren as is a person without any objections... His only goal in life is money. He literally stole 200$+ from me. Please, be safe and do not deal with him.

Kway - September 21, 2016, 2:50 am

Report the rep he left on you and he'll be taking a mandatory vacation.
