Thread: Waifu season, pick yours <.<

severos - September 18, 2016, 1:14 pm

Inspired by this, I thought of making this thread.

Simply put, pick your wifu (would say hasbu for females, but do they exist here?) from HF users (gender bending available to even the numbers?), name them after an anime character, and describe how you met them using an anime screen shot (doesn't have to be from same anime of the name). Multiple wifues allowed, but take them in moderation (remember: too many wifues will screw you lifues). You may wifu an already wifued member, just don't over wifu someone, might go over loaded... if you know what I mean???

If you have been wifued, accept/reject using an anime screenshot, bonus if you explain why using another screenshot.

Let the wifu season begin, pick your wifu with care, you might have a yandere stalking around <.<

Talks about waifu, yet spells it wifu, seems legit

Edit: I know it is spelled both ways, I just wanted to be a smart ass

Deany - September 18, 2016, 2:45 pm

Then I started watching love live sunshine and saw that Riko is the PERFECT school idol.

Riko > Eli > Umi >>> other idols

But didn't we establish in the original thread that it was Waifu season all year round?

However, getting a new waifu has some requirements like having extra time for her and such, therefore you don't expect to get a new waifu when you're just back to university since you don't even have time to shit =,="

Sadly everyone's waifus are trash. This is something we must all accept as part of our waifu arrangement.
