Pretty sure this isn't his main account but this is one he does in fact use, Here is all the proof that I have based on the skype conversation I had with him on the user "Regulus" Skype.

I contacted him about purchasing a program that we "spoke" about a few months ago and said I had the payment, Ofcourse just to scam me, he sends me his btc address and is expecting a payment to be sent. I then said that we agreed that he would go first and I sent him a link to where we agreed on that, I chose the oldest thread that I created that has not had any activity in almost a year and sure enough he signs in to his account and checks out the thread, I found his account lurking through the thread and basically just want to share it with everyone.

Nevieth - September 18, 2016, 3:46 pm

Pretty sweet detective work there.

Pittinger - September 18, 2016, 3:49 pm

Good job, Wuss. Smart trick, used the same one myself today. Let's see how this turns out.

Maybe Omni can get to his real account.

Zexo - September 18, 2016, 9:46 pm

His skype is still hacked I hope everyone sees and won't deal with him.

Danny Khalifa - September 18, 2016, 9:49 pm

Damn.. That's a nice investigation right there. But I wonder how he got him infected.
Thanks for the heads up man.

SIM-3115565 - September 18, 2016, 11:37 pm

Damn busting another member good job that guy is pathetic

Vanderbilt - September 19, 2016, 12:51 am

You better watch out or he will skype bomb you XD I trolled him by doing an exchange but not going through and he crashed my skype.

Try 742 same messages

???? Shana - September 19, 2016, 4:45 am

Damn man, that's some nice work on your part. What a fucking idiot lol.

I miss regulus :(

Craze Products - September 19, 2016, 4:49 am

Good job bro, keep up the good work!
