time consume : 30mins

criticisms are welcome ?

UTRONEX - September 18, 2016, 9:50 pm

So the art is good...

But man it's so cringy that you're sat at home creating a picture of a middle aged dude that owns a hacking forum.

I think Omni gets that we appreciate his work on HF...

SupremeBot - September 18, 2016, 9:56 pm

It looks so nice I wanna fuck

F?cqlé?? - September 18, 2016, 9:57 pm

You need to make him one without the background. It'd make a cool avatar.

Baysick - September 18, 2016, 9:59 pm

That legit looks good for a avatar. I like your art style? What program did you use? A tablet too I'm assuming? Looking to get into graphic arts, because doodling on paper gets expensive after awhile.

the size is also proportion to the hf recommended size ..

i think having that background is better than a blank canvas ?

The meaning behind art is almost more important than the art itself.

Just like photographers will tell you "If you think your camera is holding you back, take a look in the mirror."

Make things that mean something to you and your audience will take notice.
