Thread: Unique Money Making Method + Coaching

Cryptic™ - September 18, 2016, 10:09 pm

I've been doing this for about a year now, the money was great, but I've moved onto bigger projects and am no longer interested in this.

Basically, you will get paid from Amazon.

There are two sources of income that I will introduce you to, one you can start right away, and the other you start later on.

Does not involve buying or selling items on Amazon.

Is completely legit, nothing illegal/shady/blackhat.

Does require some initial investments (min $50 but recommended $100).

I will provide coaching to you and help you through your journey.

If done right you can easily scale it up.

It can not get saturated.

You need to spend a couple of hours every week, and once you get everything setup its mostly auto pilot with only some manual work required from you every couple of days.

Selling this method + coaching for $350.

Tip: If your good at market research, and are able to see whats trending you will be very successful.

Tip # 2: If your good at photoshop, you will save your self a lot of money.

Ill take a vouch copy eh?

All jokes aside, You seem like a legit user, obviously, and if I weren't in another mentor ship right now I might have had to hop on this.

Send me a signature to wear. Ill promote this.

I will take a buyer review copy for $175

-Does it has to do with amazon refund?

-How much money u get each month from that method?

Thank u

No. As I said before you are not buying or selling anything.

Bringing this back up to the top. :3

You should probably add to the OP if you are giving out vouch copies or not.
