Thread: [EntrepreWhore \[Mentorship\] - The Revolutionary Automated eWhore Empire](#)

eWhoreLeader - September 19, 2016, 9:10 am

When I released my 46 minute video covering my automated eWhore Strategy back in May 2016, I was told that I sent shockwaves through HF eWhoring forums.

I am pleased to announce that I will be accepting SERIOUS entrepreneur-minded people who are ready to let go of spending hours a day on Bluestacks/Kik, wasting their time with timewasters, looking at countless dick pics, dried up traffic sources, impossible verification picture requests, and sub-par earnings.

I am ready to teach those are who READY to learn the FULL Mentorship of EntrepreWhore from start to finish and earn unimaginable income literally on AUTOPILOT!

I think this is a good investment for those who want to earn money without getting their hands dirty or don't have the time to E-Whore manually.

Good luck with sales ?

Indeed! A way to get out of the trenches and become the general. Thanks GetGorgonized!

Your thread sounds like a guy from fiverr wrote it for you.

I would never invest $5 for someone to write a $350 multi-day rare mentorship pitch. I write my own sale threads.

But we have seen many times sellers ripping off buyers in the marketplace. That causes a lack of trust.

In hackforums I go by the motto "don't invest money you can't afford to lose" and $350 is not an amount most people here can afford to lose.

You could use a middleman to help you with that trust issue or you could accept payments in increments.

Again, it is not an issue with you in particular, but with hf sellers in general. I understand that hesitation. But HF has a good way to deal with those rotten apples. And thankfully, we have community contributed rep logs.

Almost to the end of the year. Here are the earnings I've made from EntrepreWhore on basically autopilot in my first year of testing, tweaking, adapting, and implementation.
