I heard that an iphone that has a full memory drive weights like a billionth of a billionth heavier than a new iphone. Same as the kindle. Pretty interesting.

Didn't know about the fact of the day thing. Nice stuff.
The thread looks like a website from the 90s, tho.

Maybe use less different colors. Stick to one style.

Also perhaps structuring things a little more, making more line breaks or putting things into spoilers could help to make it easier to read.

Maybe take the HF news as an example.

Also why don't you put some info about this series in your signature? ?

From now and on i'll use less different colors and i'll stick to one new mlg stylez.

I'll take a look at HF news and i'll try to make FOTD more easier to read.

I did it before and put FOTD in my signature but seems that noone cared about it so i made this dank hq sig :/

I'll link it again in my sig.

Thanks for ur opinions and also thanks for the rep <3.

I give +3 very rarely and usually only for transactions. ?

On the other hand I also give -3 very rarely. I think it should be something used for special cases.

You are the only member who cares about something when giving rep xD

Usually other members give -3 and +3 without giving a shit
