Thread: TO ALL YOU USING ADIDAS YEEZY BACKDOOR CHECKOUT LINKS. DON'T WASTE YOUR TIME.

Matrix Programmer - September 19, 2016, 9:43 pm

Just a warning to all. ANYBODY OFFERING SERVICES FOR THIS DON'T FALL FOR THEM.

Adidas cancels orders if you bypass their splash page, so yes you can checkout and purchase these shoes but they'll still end up cancelling it so what's the point. Not only have they done this in the past to people who used these auto checkout links, if you are a web developer, you would also understand how simple it is to implement something which detects people who have bypassed it.

Redwall - September 19, 2016, 10:04 pm

OP you are mistaken.

I used these links before and it works for all products.

Try even with a regular pair with shoes that are on the adidas page.

Did you not read the OP lol? Yes you can check them out and purchase them. But they will be cancelled eventually IF you use them for special release shoes like Yeezy's that requires you to be picked past their splash page. Clearly a retarded thread. Everything can be bypassed. For a quite extreme solution, heard of headless browsers ? Or even, I could just emulate the whole javascript and re-create it's behavior.

Depends on how shitty your bypass method is; judging from the fact that you don't even know how shitty it is and that you're selling on HF: it's shitty and you are shitty and you should feel bad.

It's real shit. Check out his thread. He basically admitted it to being shitty by saying if it wasn't, he'd sell for $2k. ??????

U are seriously stupid and need help...

u see the problem with ur argument is that the only thing backdoor links guarantee is that u won't get ur pair, not the other way around. ?????

Lo?r - September 20, 2016, 5:49 am

They help u get a pair .. They increase ur dead chance but they dont guarantee it.

If you think backdoor links guarantee pairs then junk this thread cuz u clearly dont know wtf u r talking about.

Adob? - September 20, 2016, 5:56 am
