Thread: Tron themed tiger

Started with an image of a tiger in photoshop and went from there, made for no reason just for fun and experience

What you guys think? ?

Shape looks fairly good although could be easily confused with a bear. I would also adjust the colours a bit, but other than that great job.

I thought this was a bear when I looked at it. Adjust the outline to a shade of grey as it's hard to look at.

Exactly what Slayed said, I thought it was a bear when I first looked at it. I feel as though the eyes and the nose need to be more apparant, but that might just be me. Nice work overall though. 7/10

Well I guess it could be a bear haha ?

Not really tron more like 80s style :) Looks good like other users have said it look like a bear at first glance!

Gotta agree with Flxwn here, looks more like something from the 80s, as I see tron its more flashy simple and curved.

For me its a little too complex, can be hard to see what animal you're actually trying to aim for.

But still, looks good!

Well actually the Tron theme is formed from that 'futuristic 80s' style so they are pretty much the same thing(from what I believe). I kinda went in blind when I was shading all the shapes and making them, so thats why it looks a bit complex and hard to see.

But yeah thanks for all the feedback guys!
