Thread: [Blazin' "RDP" Shop \[WARNING People Who Bought, Post Your Experience Here \]](#)

Dzed - September 21, 2016, 4:30 pm

Okay, so i thought this was kind of sketchy to pay for a admin RDP for $6
But this is ridiculous. It seems from page 1 to the last everyone is saying the same thing

If the conversation below looks familiar, your not the only one..

Quote:RDP worked thanks

<4 Minutes Later>

hey it stopped working, i opened a ticket

<Two Hours Later>

okay thanks got another one

<3 Seconds Later>

stopped working, I've been advised to open another ticket

Also by making users open an many amount of tickets on his site
And has the balls totell people not to post issues on the actual thread!!!! lol!

Proof he's protecting his interests, of course i let him know?
Why wouldn't i want my RDP I paid for it!!!

it doesn't matter if it's so cheap, It's the principle.
also, i assume he's creating accounts for the new customers and changing ports/passwords on the old users kinda like a ponzi also if these are indeed CRACKED i understand.

but come on there's no way after 5 of the logins i got that were apparently checked beforehand get taken down so quickly!
Please post if your having trouble with this service
just so we can keep an eye on things

it doesn't sound like you understand what cracked means

Exactly, the real owners of the RDP could of changed the info ASAP after they found out about it.

V For Vendetta - September 21, 2016, 6:53 pm

Man his RDP's are shit, you'll be better off with anyone se

Blazin - September 21, 2016, 7:11 pm

Why would you open a deal dispute before contacting me.....

You are impatient bud, there's people before you.

I don't appreciate logging in and seeing a deal dispute before I even get a chance to reply. (That violates the t.o.s btw) you have to give me a chance to fix it be a replacement or whatever which you did not. As this thread stands you won't be getting another replacement. Had you of acted mature NP.

I have three years of happy customers so people can decide for themselves. :)

Got proof you've bought from me? or you a jealous fuckboy.

Sounds like it indeed when I send the login info it's checked before hand.

After that it's up to you. You can keep it for days, hours, months. It all depends. I'll gladly send a replacement if it dies before a week but not when I see marketplace crap posting about my service.

Op learn what cracked means and grow the fuck up.

The rest of what you said, fair enough. This statement though, fuck that. People who set terms like this are the immature ones who can't handle their shit. People posting about having issues is perfectly fine, it just clearly scares you.

OP sad to see this happen to you hopefully this shit gets resolved.

Larynx - September 22, 2016, 3:16 am i bought RDP and it wen't offline in like fifteen minutes :/

If you think that scares me you are smoking some serious crack. I have 3 years of happy RDP sales and 7 years +on webhosting.

Why would I give a replacement when he's already made this thread? Either way I'm being sales trashed and either way this thread will be here. Let kids be kids. OP should of waited for me to reply to his PM.

Won't post here anymore afternoon :)

Maybe because it's a great opportunity to show that your service has great support? You could have turned this into a great marketing thread but instead you only used it to prove you're still an asshat
