It depends on what kinda flower you use. I used two different kinds of flower as you can probably see :)

I don't mind at all, i use pretty basic ingredients though.

The ingredients i use are:

- 400G pancake mix
- 800ML milk (0,8L)
- 3 eggs
- cream butter

Horizon - September 26, 2016, 2:27 pm

They're really setting a craving off for some pancakes man! Last time I tried making my own pancakes they came out looking pretty poor!

Basicly what you buy in the store to make pancakes.

A quik google search will help you discover which mixes are being sold in stores near you.
