Thread: Someone pressed charges against me

That Poppy - September 22, 2016, 6:28 am

So....there's this group of guys that are always throwing shit...

Playing football where it's not allowed (cuz u might kick a ball in someones face u kno, they actually did to a teacher but they never get punished for anything)

They've thrown like a phone battery near me, which went on fire but didn't explode.

They were trying to make a deo can explode and threw it at me not so long ago, and I was still fed up with that.

So 2 days ago I first got a banana shower cuz they threw it at the wall i was standing, pretty near to me. I was fed up, didn't really do anything, there wasn't any teacher, and even if there was they wouldn't really do anything. Cuz as I said, they never get punished.

Anyway, then I got an apple shower, and I hit the guy that threw the apple....

Harder than I really meant to. School said they would let it slide, cuz it was understandable that I hit him, they understood it was my best option but I shouldn't have hit him in the face. < I agree with that, I shouldn't have. I didn't mean to hit him so hard on his face it just happened...

Anyway, that night I heard he was in the hospital, he ahd a concussion, and a bump in his skull.

Now the next day I heard he had a little ~ in his skull and needed surgery to fix it, hes home now - it wasn't really anything serious just a small break at the skull (eye part)

But his parents pressed charges against me, and I think I'm going to be fucked. (I'm 18)

I seriously didn't mean to, it was just 1 hit...

Wanted to give him a clear message, 1 hit and I walked off.

I didn't lose control, I didn't keep on beating him, but fuck---i didnt realize i hit him that hard.

I'm from the netherlands btw, hope anyone has some advice for me.

I know I shouldn't have hit him, but I'm not a criminal, I don't deserve a criminal record...

tldr; Stood up for myself, hit him too hard, now he broke his skull(eye part) and he or his parents pressed charges against me and idk whats gonna happen and idk what to do.

Didn't mean to hit him that hard...it just happened

I'm from the Netherlands too, and honestly I don't think you are in that much trouble. Mostly because they have been assaulting and harassing you too. Just wait it out, if you get brought in by the police just tell them your story. Nothing to worry about tbh.

Mongu - September 22, 2016, 6:38 am

They were starting shit with you, you could plead it as self defense.

You aren't allowed to talk Dutch on HF. I suggest you edit your post.

Especially if you are in special education, there's really nothing to get worried about. They picked on you, you flipped, shit happened. You didn't intend to hit him that hard or cause so much damage.

Just catch people of the group while they're alone and kill them or make them fear you so badly that they never get close to you anymore.

You could give a member of the group a nice dose of bathsalt and then drop him off in a forest and call the police.

And yes - we get away with almost anything, that's part of the problem.

The teachers never punish them when they're throwing shit or playing football where it's not allowed.

They throw fucking old phone batteries and they dont get suspended or even get any kind of punishment.

Which is why I ended up hitting him.

They never get corrected, only with words like DONT DO THAT - but they know that doesnt mean anything.

It's not the school that's a problem - his parents went to the police pressing charges against me - ill have to appear infront of a judge.

And I didn't mean to "break" his skull (its just a small ~ thats already fixed and hes at home)
If I lost control and wanted to kill him I wouldn't have stopped after punching him once.

well , if you got more than one witness you could sue them for harrassment and abuse (europe takes that shit pretty serious at the moment) or at least scare the parents who try to get you in trouble and its some kind of a mexican standoff
if they sue you , you sue them never give anyone the feeling you are guilty by any means you just defended yourself as you know how far they have gone so far(that batteryshit is crazy) you are 100% right and didnt want to get hurt so you had to defend your ass say you didnt intend to hit him that hard but you had to do something as you feared for your harm

It's not the first time.

I don't think they always purposely throw at me, but sometimes they think it's funny to throw something at me im pretty sure about that.

With the deo can I heard a guy say my name, or I thought I did, pretty sure I did.

Then say it was harassment. You have the right to stand up for yourself, especially if this is an action that has been going on for a long time. I suggest researching your laws so you have a better idea on how to approach the situation.

I was drunk, was running my KTM at a Speed of 170KMPH highway, it was burly but I held my ground when suddenly, that retard came in between the road of the national highway, at around 7:30 or so PM, and got hit.

I tried everything I could, HARD Break + Pushing the gear down from 6 to 2 made my RIDE come at 80KMPH but still a hit was a hit, and that retard couldn't withstand the pain or either had too much blood loss and died I guess.

Goes for my story. I said everything to the court except that I was drunk lol, well I am getting out with just a small fine xD

I don't know about netherlands, but here in Canada you would NOT be able to plea self-defense.

The reason being is when you say "oh well they've been fucking with me for months/years (w.e) then they're just going to ask why you didn't report it.

You knowing they would not get in a trouble is not a valid response, atleast not one that you can use to plea self-defense too.

Either way, if they're pressing charges and worry about the outcome, just do what you can. Lawyer up. If your parents can't afford one, are you not legally obligated to be provided one? (again dont know the law over there).

Read up on the laws, and lawyer up. You won't be able to do anything. You need a professional.

I was only on SPOT. I was taken to the nearby government hospital, where after treating some minor cuts, I transferred to a private hospital my family is antique with.

I got away just because I said, I was sane, and that guy came in between a NH which is not allowed. No one is allowed to cross a NH, the minimum speed at NH is 100KMPH, so none will bother crossing it without proper line. It was his fault for crossing a State Connecting road and not mine, if it was in between the city then maybe I would've faced some serious issues but because it was National Highway, I can get away with it.

Killing him is rude? I can just say, he died out his own stupidity. There are boards, signs, traffic guides, billboards, always saying "Caution: Do not cross the NH - USE PROPER CROSSING each 1 KM (over bridge)"

Retard, ignored the over bridge to save a KM away and died.

OGBenitez - September 22, 2016, 12:39 pm assault with great bodily injury, damn.

Atleast you stood up for yourself , he could bully but when it came down he went down in a single blow.

You can use that he bullied you in school and that you got fed up.

Tommy Chong- - September 22, 2016, 12:49 pm

It's not like you're completely fucked, we're in the Netherlands.

The worst thing that could happen is that you have to pay him money for the injuries and/or costs for treatment, but i think it'll be a fine or some sort of thing.

Bluffer - September 22, 2016, 12:54 pm

Well first of all, a judge/jury is going to need all factual information and it will come out in court that he started the incident and that you retaliated. It will also come out that the school decided to let it go. And lastly it will also come out that you did not continue punching him so with that being said you MIGHT be okay!

Get a lawyer, explain the situation (obviously) and see what you can do to get this situation fixed.

Isn't Netherlands also one of those countries that lets almost every crime go with light punishment?

Tommy Chong- - September 22, 2016, 12:57 pm

If it's only a crack, then it won't be that bad at all though have a look at this:
<http://www.wetrecht.nl/mishandeling-zware-mishandeling/>

I'm sure this won't be classed as "zware mishandeling"

Het is eenvoudige mishandeling met letsel. Dit word hooguit een paar honderd euro smarten geld, misschien zelfs minder.

Vaak word een geldboete opgelegd en proeftijd van 2 jaar.

Taakstraf is ook een mogelijkheid geloof ik

Playing football where it's not allowed (cuz u might kick a ball in someones face u kno, they actually did to a teacher but they never get punished for anything)

They've thrown like a phone battery near me, which went on fire but didn't explode.

They were trying to make a deo can explode and threw it at me not so long ago, and I was still fed up with that.

So 2 days ago I first got a banana shower cuz they threw it at the wall i was standing, pretty near to me. I was fed up, didn't really do anything, there wasn't any teacher, and even if there was they wouldn't really do anything. Cuz as I said, they never get punished.

Anyway, then I got an apple shower, and I hit the guy that threw the apple....

Harder than I really meant to. School said they would let it slide, cuz it was understandable that I hit him, they understood it was my best option but I shouldn't have hit him in the face. < I agree with that, I shouldn't have. I didn't mean to hit him so hard on his face it just happened...

Anyway, that night I heard he was in the hospital, he ahd a concussion, and a bump in his skull.

Now the next day I heard he had a little ~ in his skull and needed surgery to fix it, hes home now - it wasn't really anything serious just a small break at the skull (eye part)

But his parents pressed charges against me, and I think I'm going to be fucked. (I'm 18)

I seriously didn't mean to, it was just 1 hit...

Wanted to give him a clear message, 1 hit and I walked off.

I didn't lose control, I didn't keep on beating him, but fuck---i didnt realize i hit him that hard.

I'm from the netherlands btw, hope anyone has some advice for me.

I know I shouldn't have hit him, but I'm not a criminal, I don't deserve a criminal record...

tldr; Stood up for myself, hit him too hard, now he broke his skull(eye part) and he or his parents pressed charges against me and idk whats gonna happen and idk what to do.

Didn't mean to hit him that hard...it just happened
Something kinda the same happened to me
Plead as self defense
All
I got was 3 months of probation

You could give a member of the group a nice dose of bathsalt and then drop him off in a forest and call the police.

Best solution so far mate.

you should hack them to get revenge

Krijg ik een strafblad als ik een voorwaardelijke straf krijg?
Kan het zo niet vinden.

Parasimpaticki - September 30, 2016, 9:03 am

Any updates OP? What happend to the guy?

Deathmask - September 30, 2016, 9:05 am

That fucking sucks OP, I'm not sure how the law system is in The Netherlands but if it's anything like the US just say it was in self defense.

What the fuck - a damage claim of €3600 for emotional damage....
He doesn't even have emotional damage lying dirty cunt.

Marketing - March 2, 2017, 4:04 pm

The worst part is that you might have to pay the bills

However, you will most likely get a diversion and it won't affect your record.

GG123 - March 2, 2017, 4:06 pm

I mean honestly, as you would be considered a minor not much will happen. Probably a warning of such however, you should bring up the point that he did aggravate you.

Just be extremely defiant and dont let anything false slide

If u need advice, DM me cause ive been in similar situations before.

Charger - March 2, 2017, 4:25 pm

I wouldn't recommend the self-defense plea. You retaliated, not defended.

NA Riven - March 2, 2017, 4:42 pm

dw man the started it you just protected yourself? That he broke something or whatever well whoops he shouldnt bullied/assaulted you at the first place

SIM-3386134 - March 2, 2017, 4:44 pm

Honestly mate, this whole thread is just fucked. It shows you how backwards society is, good guys finish last and all that.

Dont worry my friend, karma will get that little prick, and if your teachers refuse to do nothing about bullying you really, really need to report it mate. You may feel like a pleb, and it may be this and that, but I highly doubt after giving him a dig they will carry it on. I hope you get this resolved dude, seriously. Fuck those little spazmoidal cunts.

Alleen fucking kut dat ik meteen zo hard sloeg, heb nog nooit iemand geslagen ugh

Vind het een beetje zielig dat ze meteen aangifte doen - ik zit op speciaal onderwijs en hij ook.

Ze hebben me niet eens ontmoet, heb niet eens met ze gepraat.

Was ook niet mn bedoeling hem zn kop in te slaan ofzo, anders had ik wel een paar keer vaker geslagen ipv het bij 1 klap te laten.

Het was meer van EN NU IS HET KLAAR :/

Can I?

They didn't really directly throw it at me..

Probably best to pay the money than risk going to prison.

Toby Flenderson - March 2, 2017, 6:03 pm

I would start by saying you were acting in self defence as what he did was technically assault. If that doesn't work you need to prove that there were multiple cases of assault on you causing emotional distress on you; which there were from your dialogue about what transpired. I would then file a counter suit against the kid for emotional distress in the hopes that they drop their suit and you settle.

NightForce - June 16, 2017, 9:06 am

Good on you for cracking his skull open, when I got in a fight I was arrested and sent to juvy, then probation for six months. But people got the message. Don't be sorry for standing up for yourself.

The_Defendant - June 17, 2017, 5:28 am

Thats so bad. Just relax you should be fine!

Kisame? - June 17, 2017, 5:33 am

You shouldve crushed his skull with a fucking baseball bat.

Cha0 - June 17, 2017, 5:36 am

Like literally worst case scenario, you'll do a few hours of community service because what you did was technically illegal but I doubt it.

Don't worry about it, just laugh at him for being such a huge pussy he couldn't even take one hit.

xolly3 - June 17, 2017, 7:04 am

I mean i think its the right thing to do, i would have done it. I would +rep u for breaking his skull but i dont have a rank so rip.

rsx - June 17, 2017, 7:04 am

You're 18? Is he under 18? If so you're looking at assault on a minor charge, which is obviously worse than just an assault charge. Could be a class 1 misdemeanor a class 4 felony, depending on state.

You could get it dropped to a battery charge or something like that. Probably won't get a felony.

Dot. - June 17, 2017, 7:30 am

You plead that it was self defense and that the group of people has been abusing you mentally, indirectly or directly, doesn't matter. Their provocation built up and you snapped. You shouldn't get shit for it if you can prove that they're dicks that do this shit to people.

Barney - June 17, 2017, 7:54 am

Fight the charges. You stood up for yourself and I bet you could make a pretty good case out of it if you stood your ground.

You can't just let anyone walk over you just because he/she may or may not be pressing charges.

Habbodealer - June 17, 2017, 9:02 am

Had laatst een vechtpartij in een club, ik wou aangifte gaan doen maar dit was zoveel werk dat ik het uiteindelijk maar opgegeven heb. Is het al zeker dat aangifte hebben gedaan? Het is onwijs veel werk en het gaat ook veel geld kosten voor die ouders om het proces in gang te zetten.

Vegas - June 17, 2017, 9:11 am

Wish someone would give me an apple shower

Zens - June 17, 2017, 9:36 am

You can said it as self defense. Around 3 years ago i had problem like yours. These guy throw a table at me, and i hit him on his back, its very hard. He directly feel to the floor and fainted (his chin was bruised and not wake up until 1 hour) . The next day, his parents tried to charge againts me, but i win. Because their son throw table at me, and i said it was self defense. So, you will win OP, because he starting shit on you. Good luck OP.

Deany - June 17, 2017, 9:38 am uh.. what is an apple shower do i even wanna know
