Thread: Fifa 17 Fifa Point accounts

big dick rick - September 24, 2016, 2:14 pm

Accounts have nothing on them apart from fifa points. Xbox issued gamertags and non changed club name.

edit: they also have the free packs and legend packs unopened

Accounts are silver, not gold.

-24k FIFA POINTS
-12k FIFA POINTS

?£30 for 12k accounts
?£55 for 24k accounts

BTC/Skrill/Eth

All fifa points obtained legally.

This is great if you don't have EA Access and want to open packs before the game is released. As well as being cheap as fuck.

I can also load fifa points on to your account at the store price - 5 % if you want them on a specific gamertag.

I will only deal on site.

If you look at transaction history. How will it show the points are purchased? Can you screenshot this?

I am slightly curious as I am an avid fifa player - is there a vouch copy available? Might be worth your while as it seems users are hesitant to purchase. Regardless, I wish you the best of luck in sales.

no. I don't care if people don't buy, I'll just buy packs and sell the coins if no one wants to buy these accounts.
