Hello everyone,

I have some spare gold and items on my account which I don't use as I don't play anymore.

Thanks

Clearly says EoC; try reading the thread instead of just asking for stuff.

Stupid or just didn't know about a game. Your arrogance makes you the stupid one.

You're asking for free stuff in a downgraded version of the main game.

I'm not being arrogant; it's called having basic information.

I'm asking for free stuff in a downgraded version of the game which is worth more.

EoC is short for evolution of combat which refers to the combat system of Runescape 3. EoC = RS3

Why explain it to him.

It's in the Runescape Section under EoC. Let him look up info himself.

You know it's worth more; yet don't know the other game.

Okay

SIM-403479 - September 25, 2016, 7:53 am

No I didnt know what evolution of combat was. Nor did I see it in the title at the top as it doesn't show you once you're on the thread or I would have searched it. I clicked it from the new posts and didn't see that.

Do you get bullied so you take it out on people over the internet? Don't be so upset when people try to help others.

Yes I do know 07 is worth more. I just know the "other game" as RS3.
