Thread: Name for Anime Related Shop

SIM-2998667 - September 25, 2016, 9:49 am

Hey guys, I want to open an Anime related store that sells stuff like figures/keychains etc but I'm struggling to figure out a domain name for it.

I'm not very creative with catchy domain names, so do you guys have any idea's that would be good for catchy domain names for an Anime/manga shop?

Make sure its available on whois.com

Also, would prefer if its a .com

Reminds me of the 399Animeshop that scammed me $10 for my Fate/zero Keychain. Yet to get my PayPal refund.

Not sure, maybe something along the lines of moe or otaku or any of the anime genres.

AnimeOblivion.Com
what about that?

Awh sorry for getting scammed bro. How'd you find the fate/zero keychain and his shop? Saw it on a facebook ad?

I believe it was just a recommendation by a friend, I bought it and they said they were out of stock 2 weeks after. Then I never got a refund. Only $10, whatever.

I decided to buy the 12 Piece set like 2-3 weeks ago from Amazon, ships from China so it'll be another week. I'm actually curious to how your site will turn out, drop me a PM I might be interested in partnering if you're up for that.

I think OtakuMode is the biggest anime online retailer right now.
