Thread: Does money make you happy?

Cold Hearted - September 25, 2016, 11:22 pm

Money makes me very happy, what about you?

I've seen many people say "money doesnt bring happiness" etc.

I guess but the fact omni banned my account for "Being low qualaity" 5minuts after i upgraded... It makes me wish i could get my money back

Reven?nt - September 25, 2016, 11:24 pm

Well, money can buy me nice things that make me happy, therefore, yes, it could bring happiness.

W?If - September 25, 2016, 11:25 pm

The money doesn't bring happiness quote is true to a certain extent, but money does bring me happiness as it brings an easy way of life to which you don't have to worry about your financial situation and live pay check to pay check.

SanctualProductions - September 25, 2016, 11:29 pm

Hell yes money makes me happy and if I had some I'd be doing the carlton dance from the fresh prince of belair

HempNoose - September 25, 2016, 11:32 pm

Tacos cost money and tacos make me happy so in a sense, yes money makes me happy

Hollyfuck dude you made my day

Mr. Corleone - September 25, 2016, 11:40 pm

Well there was a study done on this, and yes money does in fact make you happy up untill a certain amount where more doesn't make you any happier.

You are happy up untill you have like $10, after that more won't make the average person happier. And as always, whether money makes you happy or not purely depends on the person itself.

Riyu- - September 25, 2016, 11:41 pm

What makes me happy is earning the money. I strive for success more than anything.

SIM-2228224 - September 25, 2016, 11:46 pm

The fact that I'm able to get all the shit I want, pay my own bills, stay feed as well as treat my friend to meals, and have no excuse when it comes to birthday gifts, makes me a happy man. So yeah, to some extent, money's pretty neat.

Bluffer - September 26, 2016, 1:32 am

Yes even making a small amount of money can sometimes make me happy.

What isn't to love about it? It means you survive another hour or another day.

The Host - September 26, 2016, 2:24 am

I think there's a limit to how much money. When you have crazy amount of money that's when all the fake people appear in your life. Then you think to yourself. X person wouldn't have liked or known you without your money. People will tend to use you or ask for favours etc.

This is a big reason why a lot of rich people hate being rich.

opsplayer - September 26, 2016, 2:30 am

Money Is Love , Money Is Life. Money Is Everywhere If You Think About It. It Makes Everything To Our Daily Clothes To Our Street Cement . Maybe Not In Africa But Everywhere Else Of Course.

Zauber98 - September 26, 2016, 2:34 am

Honestly as long as I can feed myself, afford a good computer and good internet, I am set for life. I'm not too picky.

StartHearts - September 26, 2016, 2:37 am

ofcourse it can make you happy
jesus

Infinity. - September 26, 2016, 2:38 am

It's not the money that makes you happy

it's the feeling of certainty.

Motusora - September 26, 2016, 2:42 am of course, it can buy almost everything !!!

problems.x - September 26, 2016, 2:43 am

Money makes me happy as fuck, not only that, me getting money makes other people happy as fuck (family and friends) because I share what i earn, I love see'ing other people i care about be happy.

Rhino - September 26, 2016, 3:30 am earning money, then spending it makes me happy. I feel like i have achieved something this way, which makes me happy

Thomaz000 - September 26, 2016, 3:32 am

If you are mentally fucked up like me... then

yes money makes me happy it gives me the freedom to do, go, where i want and have space when i want

Pleasehelpme15 - September 26, 2016, 4:19 am

Money Makes you happy in my opinion but its bot THE only thing

MaxYourBro - September 26, 2016, 5:06 am

"Let me tell you something. There is no nobility in poverty. I've been a rich man, and I've been poor man. And I choose rich every fucking time. Cause, At least as a rich man, when I have to face my problems, I show up in the back of a limo wearing a $2000 suit ...and $40,000 gold fuckin' watch!"

Yin Yang - September 26, 2016, 5:07 am

Getting that money deposit into my bank account sure does bring a smile to my face. So yes, I would say that money does make me happy

PotatoBlood - September 26, 2016, 5:36 am

3 previous pages are clearly poor fucks who don't know what real happiness is. Yeah sure, money can buy you material things, which in an extend make your life easier, thus making you "happy".

Just because you have no money and are unhappy because you can't buy/do what you want (to do) because you are too stupid or lazy does not mean that the opposite is true, on the contrary! Only the transition from poor to rich will make you happy for that time being.

But real happiness comes from within, from the people around you, not the moneydiggers, from the love and appreciation you get from real friends, from the achievements in your life, your first kid will make you happy in a way you never experienced before.

King??? - September 26, 2016, 5:42 am

Yeah money makes me happy.

6-12 months ago I was depressed.

I pulled myself out of it by working harder than ever and making money.

Now I wake up every morning with 1 intention... Make money :)

I'm not saying "money makes everything OK" or "You have to have money to be happy" etc. But I'm saying money is 100% my motivation.

Because money = power/control, and I like power and control ?

It's obvious that you 1000000% come from a rich family.

DRayy909 - September 26, 2016, 5:50 am in my opinion no it just brings a sense of stability to myself that way i know ill always have something to fall on i find happiness through things that dont cost money usually but im different

Fukin - September 26, 2016, 6:35 am

No nothing does and nothing can

Vossen - September 26, 2016, 7:00 am

Money itself doesn't make happy, that's a fact.

What makes happy is the freedom you get with it. Financial freedom turns into general freedom quite fast.

For some people, the process of earning the money makes happy as well. Building a business and seeing how it grows.

I don't know if it's the money itself, but the things money brings.

OK my response was a little strong actually haha!

I'd say this, it's the freedom that comes with money. The lack of restrictions. The lack of feeling the weight of the world on your shoulders. And the making of money ?

L1l DuRk - September 26, 2016, 8:02 am

Sure money makes me happy all time , if i ran broke i don't feel better at all

nD_wuT - September 26, 2016, 8:12 am for some people money isn't what they want. they are already contented on what they have already

but people like me who loves money, we are not still contented on what we have. basically we're not happy

Krave - September 26, 2016, 9:29 am

Money does make me happy, but everything has its limits. There will come a time where you have so much money you'll seek happiness from something else, which may not be available to you.

Anna-senpai - September 26, 2016, 9:38 am

Yes money makes me happy for sure

Oce?n - September 26, 2016, 9:41 am

I believe in a way it does being able to buy what you like and take your family on holiday etc.

Who doesn't like money?

Of course it does.

Allison Argent - September 26, 2016, 10:02 am

Harsh Reality is Money runs this world, It's a currency in which makes us "work" when in true perspective we're a slave to a piece of paper.

Governments way of keeping the working people as slaves, unless you blow up as a music artist in which case you just flow with cash at that point.

Money doesn't make me happy it's just something I need to get on through a daily process.

bullet4200 - September 26, 2016, 10:04 am without money anybody cant bring happy.means money is everythings.

Prophett - September 26, 2016, 10:08 am

Money is the only thing that makes me happy. Unfortunately I do not have a lot of it.

Doctor Fate - September 26, 2016, 10:13 am

I don't want to be rich per say, I want financial freedom. If you've read The 4 Hour Workweek by Timothy Ferris you know what I'm talking about. Essentially it's the ability to be able to live your life while you're still young enough to do it. Examples being: travelling the world, going on worldly adventures, and making enough to do it without sacrificing your precious time being as time is a limited resource in your life. If you haven't read The 4-Hour Workweek I definitely recommend it.

alexanderesyr - September 26, 2016, 12:33 pm

Well, welth and money don't make happiness, because there are thing that can't be bought, such as friendship or love, for example. But they sure help.

I mean, It's hard to put your life together, to be socially active, to enjoy your life properly if you don't have money, or if you have to struggle every month, if you have to worry about the taxes, the bills, the rent and so on.

On the other hand I can say that a real friend or a real lover, somebody who really cares about you, will never care about your incomes: they will love you no matter what.

So, you don't need to be filthy rich to be happy, you just need to right amount of money to live a decent life with the persons you love the most. Moreover money are like drugs, the more you have, the more you want, and you won't be able to stop.

Danny Khalifa - September 26, 2016, 12:34 pm

Money makes me happy, ofcourse it does.

But there is something different between natural happiness and financial happiness.

mzappatos - September 26, 2016, 12:43 pm

Money can make life a lot easier , but it is not necessarely something that can make you happy all the time. You can have money and still be the saddest man in earth

Cute - September 26, 2016, 12:47 pm

I think that It depends on the person, for instance I would be very happy with lots of money, and for thee guy next to me he could want nothing to do with it.

muppy - September 26, 2016, 12:47 pm

fuck yeah it does, anyone who says it doesnt is deluded or a liar

Unkn0wnUs3r - September 26, 2016, 12:49 pm

Very, very happy indeed...

EricCartmanGO - September 26, 2016, 12:49 pm

Money = Happiness

Obviously it doesn't give you eternal happiness or happiness thorough love but it helps you enjoy life.

Nytrix. - September 26, 2016, 12:51 pm

Money makes me very happy, although I believe that there is a certain type of happiness that money could never provide.

Eagerkid - September 26, 2016, 12:52 pm

I dont really care what people say, when you go from nothing like me, and turn it to something you will truly see money. It DOES bring me happiness, and if some philosopher tried talking to me about it I would laugh at how stupid their major is.

Bluffer - September 26, 2016, 1:10 pm

Your fuck'n right it makes me happy.

Malitia - September 27, 2016, 8:44 pm

Money has defo not brought me any happiness at all, Got a well paid job i love it there but i'm still very depressed and dont enjoy life at all
