Thread: Crown Royal Style Signature

Two-Ton 21 - September 28, 2016, 11:21 am

Had some spare time today and I've been wanting to mess around with gold text. Figured violet and gold would look awesome so I used a crown royal bag for the color palette.

What do you guys think I need to work on?

I like the lil effects. This really gives me a huge Harry Potter feeling, I like it.

Hey bud, the yellow text is a great start !

I personally would change the black text on the bottom to white - it's kinda hard to read on my screen (mbp '13 mid 2012) I don't know if you're using some sort of really good monitor or not.

I like it man !

@Intern, yeah I see what you mean. I'll change that, I can't read it at all on a mobile sized screen.

I suggest making the bottom text white its a little bit hard to read.

Other than that it checks out.

Love the colours and they match really well together and it also reminds me something you would see in the olden days, looks amazing :)
