Thread: [Official Group - Notorious | Graphics Request \[\$100 BTC/PP\]](#)

TheChi?f - September 29, 2016, 9:23 am

I am creating a new group, whose name will be Notorious and I need a set of graphics as stated below.

Quote:notorious

n?(?)'t?:rl?s

adjective

famous or well known, typically for some bad quality or deed.

I am looking for:

Userbar - 136 x 42 pixels(width & height)

Forum Icon - 40 x 40 pixels (width & height)

Animated & Non-animated thread header/thread spacers

I'd request you to kindly submit a userbar/forum icon first, and if I like it, I will then request you to do the other graphics. Creativeness is welcomed, and the winner will be getting $100.($100 can be paid in PP/BTC, whichever is preferred by you)

EDIT [16th October 2016]:

I like the current Null's userbar. and i also like the Illuminati

?ersace - September 29, 2016, 9:25 am

Excited to see the results! TheChief is a professional user, don't hesitate.

My issue with it is it's not unique enough, it feels like any other textless HF userbar. That's just my own issue with it, I'm sure TheChief has his own separate complaints.

Plus I think some lighter colors would do wonders. The bland full grey gets old after like five groups.

More time invested? You realize that's a rectangle shape, 5 seconds to apply a gradient and some text and a lion clipped from somewhere lmao? All you guys having a go at #Doge, tf is wrong with you he makes quality Graphics and what he posted is amazing, it's just not what the OP is looking for so stop digging at him for it you plebs.

OP You should've given #Doge some more criticism as he can surely make the UB you are looking for, I've seen a lot of his work. Also he styled his UB in the exact way your examples we're done, and he invested time in a thread you posted to try and impress you, and you gave him two words in response, I find that honestly disgusting. This is why I ignore competition based threads on HF.

I am by no means fantastic at userbars, but I saw the title and liked the name and wanted to share some of my ideas.

In my opinion, sometimes simple and bold is the most effective;

Something a little more abstract;

Something with an icon;

And I liked this concept of incorporating a bandit or outlaw vibe;

Too much white in the handle in my opinion, could do something to split it up, anyway it's just an idea!

I'm disappointed by you flipping on me from being my friend to telling me to go suck someone off.
You're unreliable and seem almost on the edge at all times.

You shouldn't be bothered by me simply because I'm in a group you don't like, that's just dumb.

Had the day off, Spent my whole freaken day on this:

Went for something more illustrative, it resembles the devil, evil, destruction, chaos, I originally had burning bodies, but decided that was probably a bit much. Being a fan of fantasy I decided swords would work the same, and still give the same idea of those fallen and they helped to split up the flames a little. Sorry if some still look like bodies! I can change that. Have ideas for a header and icon (animated if I can).

Put hours of work into this from start to finish. And here's my inspiration seeing as I have to include that... ?

Inspiration (Click to View)

Really happy with how things turned out, still need to work out a few things and tidy it up, but I was super happy with it and couldn't wait to share it! Going to work on a full sized image anyway when I have some more time. But right now I need a break.

Ok, I think I'm beginning to understand what you want a little more now... Without much direction I was just doing what I wanted.

Here's the concept I've come up with, initial sketch to a more refined sketch. This isn't a final product, I don't want to work on it more until I know you're interested as I've not had much time lately.

There's the "N", the blackhat, and I'll give it a modern clean look if you decide this is for you.

Let me know your thoughts.

Completely made from scratch in illustrator so it can be scaled without quality loss.

My goal was to try and make something that fit the name of "Notorious" by standing out.
I wanted to make a userbar in a unique style with a unique aesthetic.

Let me know what you think.

This looks dope as fuck.

Hey, I made this quick sketch as a proof of concept. Let me know if you'd like to use it and I'll definitely enhance it:

I was going for a notorious Indian crackwhore skank look with this userbar. Let me know.
