Didn't find another thread so thought of making this one.

I'm currently about to start EP6, the anime till now has really awesome plot development, it's making me so damn hyped, some parts are predictable but can be enjoyable for few moments. For those who have seen it, pretty sure you can see what I did there ??

What do you guys think about it??

I am not sure but my friend liked it also, besides that there is a lot of comedy in it , isn't there?

You get a plot, then double plots (far as I reached), and have the feeling it'll end up with quad+ plots XD

Comedy... not as a stand alone, but part of the plot. Also the animation is... damn, can't find a suitable word =,="

I actually watch it in the early morning, family stays up late so can't watch those stuff, but I'm an early bird so I get like 3+hours before anyone wakes up XD

But to be honest, I don't think season 2 will be much enjoyable, starting to get bored a bit at ep9, there's a chance I'll skip most the remaining episodes just to get the scenes and mark it as completed. Fan service without a story gets boring for sure.

Googled that shit expecting something related to Hunter x Hunter, left disgusted.

How can you watch something including naked little anime girls?

I'm usual a HUGE fan of super ecchi anime like HS DxD, Seiken no Qwaser etc, etc. But this one was a snooze fest the entire series.

Basically how I feel, it's literally void of plot or any twists.
