Thread: My little brother got THREATENED by KEEMSTAR on TWITCH

Slippin' Jimmy - September 30, 2016, 5:53 pm

So my little brother just ran into my room crying because he was laughing so hard about this. He has a clan on rust and all they do is troll people.

He and his clan (LAW) stream sniped keemstar and this is the result:

[Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2By7DXm1qHM>]

My bro set his steam account to private due to all the keemstar fanboys harassing him but if you need proof its actually my bro hit me up lmao.

This shit is too fucking funny.

My bro made a video of it from his POV and i will link that when people stop harassing him.

Edit: here are the reddit posts:

https://www.reddit.com/r/LivestreamFail/comments/55aq82/im_the_kid_keemstar_wanted_to_die_in_a_fire_and/

another edit: Brother is 16 AND HIS CLAN TRIGGERED THE FUCK OUT OF KEEMSTAR LIVE. LMAOOOOO

What does "stream sniped" mean?

????Kosdff - September 30, 2016, 5:56 pm

Its a term that gamers use when they are in a game like Rust, Dayz, H1, (Survival games) and they use the person's stream to locate the streamers server and position so they know where they are in game to either kill or troll,

Say I'm streaming. If I get killed because of stream sniping, the individual was watching my stream and knew information they wouldn't know w/o watching me.
