Thread: Silent Storm | 2278679 | Given Account away, Social engineered products | Utter scam

Agonises - October 2, 2016, 11:55 pm

A lot of proof will be shown. Faggot gave his account away to make a few hundred bucks.

Before hand here's some information on the individual.

He use to go by the alias "MrMeHe" and operates on other forums as "MrMeHe", here's proof of his skype.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)http://prntscr.com/cp5y8k

As seen on the image, his previous alias is posted there along with his Email and skype (This is all public information).

Here's proof it's his skype,

Spoiler \(Click to View\)http://prntscr.com/cp5yap

The same email is linked to the account.

Moving on...

And he also links his HF profile in a chat with his CO-WORKER. <http://prnt.sc/cp5wc2>

Meet his co-worker,
Crypto.Genius

Known on hackforums as:

How are they working alongside each other? Well these next few images will prove just that.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)http://prnt.sc/cp5wzx

This image shows him conferring with his partner about their "PRIVATE METHOD" aka Social engineering

Spoiler \(Click to View\)http://prnt.sc/cp5ww0

This image shows them discussing about sharing accounts (account credentials were shared to one another and proof WILL be sent to Omniscient.)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)http://prnt.sc/cp5wrf

"We'll make thousands off your account". Talking about getting a VPN to hide their Ip and make it seem like they're one person.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5wov>

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5wlk>

Talking about trust - sharing account credentials and what not.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5w6n>

"Crypto.Genius" talks about "Replying" to posts. Further proof showing their sharing the same account.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5vyu>

Talking about sharing profits, more proof. "Are you still on my account" Silent storm says.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5vtq>

"do you still have access to my hf account" Silent storm says - discussing about their deal disputes.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5vap>

They logged in at the same time and thought they got banned. But don't worry, they're elite hackers they'll figure it out.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5v60>

Crypto.Genius is the guy that social engineers them. What a hacker! His fingers are bleeding from all that hard work.

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5v2k>

When he wakes up he'll have $1000 BTC in his account. Fucking marvellous!

Spoiler <http://prnt.sc/cp5uxw>

Silent storm is replying at a fast rate. However fails to reply to his deal disputes. But it doesn't matter, them bleeding hands make him "banking" mad money.

The end.

TL;DR, Silent Storm is working with someone who has a method of social engineering cameras, he handed over account details, and they're making bank. I repeatedly replied on his thread telling you guys not to purchase these cameras.

However you may be receiving these cameras you're only putting yourself at risk.

Damn this is the juicy stuff I have been waiting for. Great job OP. It was a bitch to copy and paste the links in new tabs though

I just have one question though. I don't see in the thread he is getting a lot of sales. A lot of people are doing middleman deals with him. I guess its not out of the realm of possibility that a lot random people are buying w/o MMs and not posting about it.

Rezy - October 3, 2016, 12:06 am

Wouldn't be surprised if Stacks is part of this. King Yella tried to scam me by getting Stacks to pretend to be aftermath the middleman i wanted to use. I do believe they are close friends.

It is fairly hard to go through all the screenshots, later on in the day I'll post all the screenshots at the end or hyperlink them.

The cameras he's giving I THINK get shipped, however they're attained for free. A middleman could be used but it takes 1 week or longer to have it shipped.

If this dude can actually get the cameras, I don't understand why he isn't just dropshipping them? Like there is so many better ways to make so much more off it, and not have a shitload of orders to saturate this "private method". But my original problem was in the skype he said they were banking but I don't see the sales to back that up.

I am too cynical and kind of want to see that no cameras are getting shipped lmao.

Oh and yeah this is further proof about his alias

I'm unsure why he isn't dropshipping. With social engineering methods like this one, it can only be shipped to the same address 1-3 times before they understand something is up

However King yella was a bit stupid and posted a partial name (first letter) and partial transaction ID as form of "proof" the cameras are shipped.

<https://embed.gyazo.com/0fc3d24f0a1cdb8496b1c5273cfa3f3c.png>

It even says it point blank there "Your replacement was shipped out".

Very convincing evidence my man. Wait so you were able to get a hold of Silent's Skype / chat logs?

I was able to get a hold of Silent's skype chat logs yes. However that's the most information I'll give out relating to the proof shown in the skype logs.

J?son - October 3, 2016, 12:25 am

Some compelling evidence you got there. You should forward this information to Omniscient so he can look and take action.

I've sent Omniscient details of the Silent Storm's account credentials being shared. So he should be banned ASAP (hopefully).

Great work Agonises.

Hopefully this dick sucker gets banned.

But looks like you have done well, good work.

No doubt Silent Storm's account is fucked, but I am eager to see the end of it for the people who ordered. Like this guy has a super valuable method, but is offering a 50/50 deal and even saying he is doing all the hard work. I think he is offering the vouch copies as a front to make the service seem legit and it gives himself a 9 day window to collect money from people paying upfront, then of course bailing.

If people actually get cameras that will boggle my mind

But anyway, once again, great work on this evidence as it is the most concrete thing possible.
Kudos

There are people who sent the BTC payments for this shit?

I wouldn't doubt it. Theres a lot more naive people on this forum than you would expect. Hell, I probably would fall for this 3-4 years ago when I was younger because the potential value was too good to pass up. Now I learned its too good to be true ?

That's sad. Damn...to be honest I would've felt for it without this thread and all that ranting and roasting on his thread.

OP you are awesome!

Thats the full proof!

Payroll Giovanni - October 8, 2016, 9:56 am

Did Miguel ever get his $1000 BTC? Just curious.

?Dark Psychosis - October 8, 2016, 7:29 pm

SilentStorm Had been compromised b4 this had happened. Someone had ratted him. Just posted a thread about this. Anyone who got scammed message me with proof I know Miguel IRL I told him I would help him out and help pay people their money back as he believes it is bullshit that people lost money because of his account and the fact he got ratted.

Yeah... ok.

Considering his account scammed people and you're the one paying them back, not the guy who got "ratted", that doesn't set off any red flags?

If he really did scam, then you're just paying everyone he scammed and hell think it's okay in the long run cus someone will cover his ass lmao.

No, If you read what I said, He is a IRL friend of mine and I offered to help him pay people back. He did not want anything like this to happen. If you look at his threads before why would such a nice guy all of a sudden turn into a complete fucking asshole? Look at the spelling and shit its completely fucking different same with skype...

I did read what you said. Did you read what I said? You're helping pay people back that he scammed or "omg someone ratted him" and he was irresponsible with his account.

That's the whole fucking reason I am helping him pay people back (Note that word helping) because of the fact that he was irresponsible he needs to pay the fuck up. I told him I would help him with that I'm going to pay the people first then he will pay me back I know where tf he lives ffs if he doesn't pay me in the end and I find out our years of friendship (only found out he was on hf in the summer) was a lie and he did scam, then i will go to his house and kick the shit out of him ?. But, knowing him as well as I do, that should never be necessary.
